

Test Your Emotional Intelligence

This is a list of situations each followed by five possible responses (ALWAYS, USUALLY, SOMETIMES, RARELY AND NEVER).

Read each sentence carefully and out of the five possible responses, choose the one which seems to you to be the most appropriate response for a particular situation.

Always: A/ Usually: U/ Sometimes: S/ Rarely: R/ Never: N.

S.No.		A	U	S	R	N
1-	I extend help to anyone who is in need without expecting any return.
2-	I am very sensitive and respectful to the feelings of others.
3-	I do not allow my emotions to spill to spoil my relations with others. I am always in control of my emotions.
4-	If someone harms me in any way. I do not forget it easily; I am on a lookout to retaliate in the same coin.
5-	I never have problem adjusting with any kind of person.
6-	I feel guilty for any wrong that I may have done in the past.
7-	I try to share others grief or turmoil, I am sympathetic and caring when someone is in pain.
8-	Between the two, I get more happiness and peace of mind in giving rather than taking.
9-	I solve a problem as soon as I confront it, and it keeps me free from worries.
10-	I look at my problem with an open mind. I never allow my feelings and emotions to hijack my decisions and actions.
11-	My feelings are one with the suffering person. I try to spend time with that person and share his grief and sorrow.

Office, 2009      Exploring Children's Learning Christine Ritchie, 2016-12-08 Exploring Children's Learning 3 11 years is essential reading for those passionate about supporting children's learning environments from Early Years to Key Stage 2. By combining learning with important aspects of a broad curriculum content, it will inspire and enhance an interest in supporting children's learning. Individual chapters focus on key areas of the curriculum such as literacy and history, numeracy and science, as well as more general topics such as creativity, assessment, and the emotional and behavioural aspects of learning. The book takes an objective view on control over curriculum and offers practical insights into how supportive learning opportunities can create enjoyable and satisfying lifelong learning habits, preparing children for the challenges they may face in their adult working life. Whether you dip into chapters or read through the book as a whole, you will develop your understanding of the complexity of learning and the lifelong effects implicit in this, not only from the individual basis that each child faces in terms of learning how to learn, but also concerning the differences in learning strategies required to successfully negotiate subject knowledge across a range of disciplines. This book is a must-read for students of Childhood and Education Studies programmes, those undertaking Initial Teacher Training, as well as general readers with an interest in supporting children's learning.

Handbook of School-Based Mental Health Promotion Alan W. Leschied, Donald H. Saklofske, Gordon L. Flett, 2018-07-03 The Springer Series on Human Exceptionality Series Editors Donald H. Saklofske and Moshe Zeidner. Handbook for School-Based Mental Health Promotion: An Evidence-Informed Framework for Implementation. Alan W. Leschied, Donald H. Saklofske, and Gordon L. Flett, Editors. This handbook provides a comprehensive overview to implementing effective evidence-based mental health promotion in schools. It addresses issues surrounding the increasing demands on school psychologists and educational and mental health professionals to support and provide improved student well-being, learning, and academic outcomes. The volume explores factors outside the traditional framework of learning that are important in maximizing educational outcomes, as well as how students learn to cope with emotional challenges that confront them both during their school years and across the lifespan. Chapters offer robust examples of successful programs and interventions addressing a range of student issues, including depression, self-harm, social anxiety, high-achiever anxiety, and hidden distress. In addition, chapters explore ways in which mental health and education professionals can implement evidence-informed programs from the testing and experimental stages to actual use within schools and classrooms. Topics featured in this handbook include: A Canadian perspective to mental health literacy and teacher preparation; The relevance of emotional intelligence in the effectiveness of delivering school-based mental health programs; Intervention programs for reducing self-stigma in children and adolescents; School-based suicide prevention and intervention; Mindfulness-based programs in school settings; Implementing emotional intelligence programs in Australian schools. The Handbook for School-Based Mental Health Promotion is a must-have resource for researchers, clinicians, and related professionals and policymakers, as well as graduate students across such interrelated disciplines as child and school psychology, social work,
