Exploring Digital Communication Caroline Tagg, 2015-04-10 Routledge Introductions to Applied Linguistics is a series of introductory level textbooks covering the core topics in Applied Linguistics primarily designed for those beginning postgraduate studies or taking an introductory MA course as well as advanced undergraduates Titles in the series are also ideal for language professionals returning to academic study The books take an innovative practice to theory approach with a back to front structure This leads the reader from real world problems and issues through a discussion of intervention and how to engage with these concerns before finally relating these practical issues to theoretical foundations Exploring Digital Communication aims to discuss real world issues pertaining to digital communication and to explore how linguistic research addresses these challenges The text is divided into three sections Problems and practices Interventions and Theory each of which is further divided into two subsections which reflect linguistic issues relating to digital communication The author seeks to demystify any perceived divide between online and offline communication arguing that issues raised in relation to digital communication throw light on language use and practices in general and thus linguistic interventions in this area have implications not only for users of digital communication but for linguists general understanding of language and society Including relevant research examples tasks and a glossary this textbook is an invaluable resource for postgraduate and upper undergraduate students taking New Media or Communication Studies modules within Applied Linguistics and English Language courses

Multilingual Learning: Assessment, Ideologies and Policies in Sub-Saharan Africa Colin Reilly, Feliciano

Chimbutane, John Clegg, Casmir Rubagumya, Elizabeth J. Erling, 2023-11-30 This edited volume provides the follow up to Erling et al s 2021 Multilingual Learning and Language Supportive Pedagogies in Sub Saharan Africa The strategies put forward in Volume 1 included multilingual pedagogies that allow students to draw on their full linguistic repertoires translanguageing and other language supportive pedagogies While there is great traction in the pedagogical strategies proposed in Volume 1 limited progress has been made in terms of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Thus the main focus of this follow up volume is to explore the question of why former colonial languages and monolingual approaches continue to be used as the dominant languages of education even when we have multilingual pedagogies and materials that could and do work and despite substantial evidence that learners have difficulties when taught in a language they do not understand This book offers perspectives to answer this question through focusing on the internal and external pressures which impact the capacity for implementing multilingual strategies in educational contexts at regional national and community levels Chapters provide insights into how to better understand and work within these contemporary constraints and challenge dominant monoglossic discourses which inhibit the implementation of multilingual education in SSA The volume focuses on three main areas which have proven to be stumbling blocks to the effective implementation of multilingual education to date namely assessment ideology and policy An insightful collection that will be of great interest to academics researchers and practitioners in the fields of language education language in education policy and educational assessments in the wide range of multilingual contexts in Africa

Monolingualism and Linguistic Exhibitionism in Fiction Anjali Pandey, 2016-01-25 How are linguistic wars for global prominence literarily and linguistically inscribed in literature This book focuses on the increasing presence of cosmetic multilingualism in prize winning fiction making a case for an emerging transparent turn in which momentary multilingualism works in the service of long term monolingualism
