The Palgrave Handbook of Language Policies in Africa Esther Mukewa Lisanza, Leonard Muaka, 2024-07-08 This handbook explores language policies and their impacts in Africa examining the different language policies in each country from pre colonial to post colonial times Most African countries are multilingual apart from a handful which are said to be quasi monolingual The authors in this handbook investigate language policy in education media legal courts government documents and other public domains and show how these policies shape learning and delivery of services to the citizens The volume also pays special attention to the roles assigned to minority languages in Africa most of which are endangered The contributions also investigate how these language policies are influenced by the history of colonialism and language attitudes emanating from colonial rule This handbook will be of interest to a diverse audience of readers including those interested in African languages language planning and policy and African history and education

Comparative Analysis on Universal Primary Education Policy and Practice in Sub-Saharan Africa , 2015-01-01 Achieving Universal Primary Education UPE has received considerable attention since the early 1950s The concept of universal education is however not well defined and is used to mean many different things to different people This book contains a five year research work conducted by a group of African and Japanese researchers who have developed an equal partnership and network to review the expansion of primary education some policies prompting the free primary education intervention and the challenges of implementation based on the case study of two districts in four countries namely Ghana Kenya Malawi and Uganda The first part discusses issues related to administrative financial and perceptive issues related to UPE policies in each country case followed by the second part that focuses on quality of education and UPE policies The book contains various lessons learnt and implications for future education policies in developing countries

Language Issues in Comparative Education II

Carol Benson, Kimmo Kosonen, 2021-01-25 This second volume of Language Issues in Comparative Education following the tradition of the first introduces the state of the field re establishes core terminology and concepts and situates the chapters in terms of their contributions to multilingual education based on non dominant languages The first group of chapters examines language in education policy change applying an innovative framework to analyze diverse contexts including Mozambique Estonia and the Philippines The next group of chapters describes activities designed to implement multilingual education Using examples from Chad Ethiopia Kenya and Nepal they explore progress in teacher professional development and elaboration of materials for literacy and learning through non dominant languages Some highlight new areas of the field attending to speakers of non dominant languages other than the ones chosen for instruction and to the urgent multilingual needs of refugee learners The final group of chapters presents strategies for research and advocacy illustrated with examples from DR Congo Uganda and India Taken together these contributions form a cohesive body of work that takes stock of advances in multilingual education and moves the field forward The authors and editors share a common commitment to comparativism in their methods and analysis and aim to contribute to a more inclusive and multilingual education for all See inside the book

The Way Ahead--into Action ,1985 Talking Freedom Karsten Legère, Sandra Fitchat, Femi Akindele, 2002

Sociology of Education James Ainsworth, 2013-04-11 The sociology of education is a rich interdisciplinary field that studies schools as their own social world as well as their place within the larger society The field draws contributions from education sociology human development family studies economics politics and public policy Sociology of Education An A to Z Guide introduces students to the social constructions of our educational systems and their many players including students and their peers teachers parents the broader community politicians and policy makers The roles of schools the social processes governing schooling and impacts on society are all critically explored Despite an abundance of textbooks and specialized monographs there are few up to date reference works in this area Features Benefits 335 signed entries fill 2 volumes in print and electronic formats providing the most comprehensive reference resource available on this topic Cross References and Suggestions for Further Reading guide readers to additional resources A thematic Reader s Guide groups related articles by broad topic areas as one handy search feature on the e Reference platform which also includes a comprehensive index of search terms facilitating ease of use by both on campus students and distance learners A Chronology provides students with historical perspective on the sociology of education Never Again A. P. Obura, 2003 National Bibliography of Uganda ,2011 University of Dar Es Salaam Library Journal ,2006 The Orderly Entrepreneur Catherine A. Honeyman, 2016-09-14 The first generation of children born after Rwanda's 1994 genocide is just now reaching maturity setting aside their school uniforms to take up adult roles in Rwandan society and the economy At the same time Rwanda's post war government has begun to shrug off international aid as it pursues an increasingly independent path of business friendly yet strongly state regulated social and economic development The Orderly Entrepreneur tells the story of a new Rwanda now at the vanguard among developing countries emulating the policies of Singapore Korea and China and devoutly committed to entrepreneurship as a beacon for 21st century economic growth Drawing on ethnographic research with nearly 500 participants The Orderly Entrepreneur investigates the impact and reception of the Rwandan government's multiyear entrepreneurship curriculum first implemented in 2007 as required learning in all secondary schools As Honeyman shows entrepreneurship is more than a benign buzzword or hopeful panacea for economic development but a complex ideal with unique meanings across Rwandan society She reveals how curriculum developers teachers and students all brought their own interpretations and influence to the new entrepreneurship curriculum exposing how even a carefully engineered project of social transformation can be full of indeterminacies and surprising twists every step of the way Perspectives on Curriculum and Instruction Frank Schorn, Arthur Blair, 1982 Geolinguistics ,2005 Moto ,1997 Uganda Confidential ,2002 Language and Literacy in Uganda Kate Parry, 2000 Uganda's linguistic situation is complex These papers from two conferences at Makerere University present a coherent and current picture The book is divided into five parts an overview of language and literacy issues in both Ugandan and international contexts the issue of language for national communication the role of local language in the education system national policies and practices in teaching literacy and literature and ways of encouraging a reading culture in Uganda International Handbook of Reading Education Betty J. Eller, John Hladczuk, 1992-07-27 As major political and social changes continue to sweep through the countries of the world and more and more nations move toward forms of social democracy the importance of being able to read has taken on a new urgency The burden of government commerce education and social welfare is moving increasingly toward the individual and with it the need to turn basic reading skills into the sophisticated ability to analyze comprehend and debate the whole world of language in front of him This book offers an opportunity to see how the process of learning to read is being handled in a broad cross section of countries in the world representing the First Second and Third Worlds Each of the twenty six country surveys has been written by an international scholar indigenous to that land and follows the same basic pattern in examining reading education Following a brief introduction to the nation and its particular educational characteristics ten reading associated factors are fully discussed and analyzed These factors include the language of the country in question its reading policy the goals of reading illiteracy issues pertaining to the rate and diagnosis of reading disabilities reading readiness programs the teacher qualification procedure the source and availability of materials in reading the financing of reading education and research thrusts in the field of reading Each chapter then concludes with a summary and brief bibliography of important reference sources within that country This unique study will be an essential reference tool for students and practitioners in the fields of education and reading literacy as well as a valuable addition to both public and academic libraries
