English Paper 0500 2013 June:

Palestine Is Throwing a Party and the Whole World Is Invited Kareem Rabie, 2021-03-29 In 2008 Palestinian Prime Minister Salam Fayyad invited international investors to the first ever Palestine Investment Conference which was designed to jump start the process of integrating Palestine into the global economy As Fayyad described the conference Palestine is throwing a party and the whole world is invited In this book Kareem Rabie examines how the conference and Fayyad's rhetoric represented a wider shift in economic and political practice in ways that oriented state scale Palestinian politics toward neoliberal globalization rather than a diplomatic two state solution Rabie demonstrates that private firms international aid organizations and the Palestinian government in the West Bank focused on large scale private housing development in an effort toward state scale economic stability and market building This approach reflected the belief that a thriving private economy would lead to a free and functioning Palestinian state Yet as Rabie contends these investment based policies have maintained the status quo of occupation and Palestine's subordinate and suspended political and economic relationship with Israel

Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage Margaret J.-M. Sönmez, Maia Wellington Gahtan, Nadia Cannata, 2019-12-09 Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage presents essays by practitioners based in language museums around the world Describing their history mission and modes of display contributors demonstrate the important role intangible heritage can and should play in the museum. Arguing that languages are among our most precious forms of cultural heritage, the book also demonstrates that they are at risk of neglect and of endangerment from globalisation and linguistic imperialism. Including case studies from across Europe, North America, Africa and Asia, this book documents the vital work being done by museums to help preserve languages and make them objects of broad public interest. Divided into three sections, contributions to the book focus on one of three types of museums: museums of individual languages, museums of language groups, both geographic and structural, and museums of writing. The volume presents practical information alongside theoretical discussions and state-of-the-art commentaries concerning the representation of languages and their cultural nature. Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage is the first volume to address the subject of language museums and as such should be of interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of museum and cultural heritage studies, applied linguistics, anthropology, tourism and public education.

Jihadism, Online Discourses and Representations Rüdiger Lohker, 2013. Jihadi online media try to mobilize, recruit and disseminate the messages of jihadi subcultures. Understanding the mechanisms and structures of the products of these online media is essential for understanding jihadism in general. Original research into visual representations of jihadi media outlets, the subtleties of jihadi videos, the specific ways jihadis use Islamic religious language into jihadi poetry and the ways jihadis stage their concepts in videos of kangaroo trials is presented in this volume. Jihadis as part of the imagery of global media production is another aspect of representations of jihadism described in one of the contributions.
