SECTION C

6. Read the given passage and Answer the questions that follow.

The French Revolution opened up the possibility of creating a dramatic change in the way in which society was structured. Not everyone in Europe, however, wanted a complete transformation of society. Responses varied from those who accepted that some change was necessary but wished from gradual shift to those who wanted to restructure society radically. Some were conservatives, others were liberals or radicals.

Such differing ideas about social change clashed during the social and political turmoil that followed the French Revolution. The various attempts at revolution and national
