Sustainable Approaches in Textiles and Fashion Subramanian

Senthilkannan Muthu,2022-03-29 This fourth volume in the series presents various sustainable approaches in the textile and fashion sector with a focus on manufacturing processes and chemicals Sustainability is one of the important aspects in today's industrial context which is followed by every industrial sector with no exception to textiles and fashion Sustainability and strict adherence to the principles of sustainability has become as one of the essential needs again for any industrial sector including textiles and fashion There are countless measures in terms of various approaches to make the textiles and fashion sector sustainable These measures but not limited to ranging from innovating and implementing new fibres and raw materials introducing innovative manufacturing methods chemicals processes to focus on all the possible stages of a textile product's life cycle from cradle to grave These approaches include making the textiles and fashion sector circular and also development of new products from sustainable raw materials processes or combination of both Textile World Walter S. Kelley, Henry G. Lord, Walter Bradford Guild, Henry Gratton Kittredge, Samuel Sherman Dale, Charles Hiram Clark, Vernon E. Carroll, Clarence Hutton, Douglas Gordon Woolf, 1923 Science and Civilisation in China, Part 9, Textile Technology: Spinning and Reeling Joseph Needham, Dieter Kuhn, 1988-06-09 This study the first of two parts gives a comprehensive account of Chinese textiles and textile technology and deals with the evolution of bast fibre spinning and silk reeling in the history of China These operations are the basic techniques in the production of yarn and thread pre requisite to weaving and any study of Chinese textile technology must start with the raw material obtained from fibre plants such as hemp ramie jute cotton etc and silk reeled off from cocoons of the domestic silkworm The time span covered runs from the neolithic to the nineteenth century Archaeological and pictorial evidence the bulk of it hitherto unpublished in the West is brought together with Chinese textual sources which are extensively translated and interpreted to illustrate Chinese achievements in this field Professor Kuhn's study reveals the way in which Chinese textile technological inventiveness has influenced textile production in other regions of the world and in medieval Europe It explains how textile technology reached its high point between the tenth and thirteenth centuries and attempts to indicate the reasons for its subsequent relative decline The development of the textile industry in Europe was a key factor in the rise of capitalism In the case of China after Sung times textile technology and the organisation of textile labour may help indicate why such a development did not take place in China
