Orthodox Christians in America John H. Erickson, 2010-04-10 Although there are over 200 million Orthodox Christians worldwide 4 million of whom live in the United States their history beliefs and practices are unfamiliar to most Americans This book outlines the evolution of Orthodox Christian dogma which emerged for the first time in 33 A D before shifting its focus to American Orthodoxy a tradition that traces its origins back to the first Greek and Russian immigrants in the 1700s The narrative follows the momentous events and notable individuals in the history of the Orthodox dioceses in the U S including Archbishop Iakovos march for civil rights alongside Rev Martin Luther King Jr the Orthodox missionaries active opposition to the mistreatment of native Inuit in Alaska the quest for Orthodox unity in America the massive influx of converts since the 1960s and the often strained relationship between American Orthodox groups and the mother churches on the other side of the Atlantic Erickson explains the huge impact Orthodox Christianity has had on the history of immigration and how the religion has changed as a result of the American experience Lively engaging and thoroughly researched the book unveils an insightful portrait of an ancient faith in a new world Mother Tongue

Theologies Darren J. N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West Orthodox

Christian Material Culture Timothy Carroll, 2018-05-15 Although much has been written on the making of art objects as a means of engaging in creative productions of the self most famously Alfred Gell's work there has been very little written on Orthodox Christianity and its use of material within religious self formation Eastern Orthodox Christianity is renowned for its artistry and the aesthetics of its worship being an integral part of devout practice Yet this is an area with little ethnographic exploration available and even scarcer ethnographic attention given to the material culture of Eastern Christianity outside the traditional homelands of the greater Levant and Eastern Europe Drawing from and building upon Gell's work Carroll explores the uses and purposes of material culture in Eastern Orthodox Christian worship Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork in a small Antiochian Orthodox parish in London Carroll focusses on a study of ecclesiastical fabric but places this within the wider context of Orthodox material ecology in Britain This ethnographic exploration leads to discussion of the role of materials in the construction of religious identity material understandings of religion and pathways of pilgrimatic engagement and religious movement across Europe In a religious tradition characterised by repetition and continuity but also as sensuously tactile this book argues that material objects are necessary for the continual production of Orthodox Christians as art like subjects It is an important contribution to the corpus of literature on the anthropology of material culture and art and the anthropology of religion

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest

We Give Our Thanks Unto Thee Porter C. Taylor, 2019-04-17 Fr Alexander Schmemmann continues to influence liturgical and sacramental theologies some thirty five years after his death Despite the wide acceptance within Protestant circles of his timeless classic For the Life of the World there has been relatively little written about him from an ecumenical context This volume of collected essays seeks to explore his theological legacy and further his work With essays from leading scholars such as David Fagerberg Bruce Morrill Joyce Zimmerman and more this volume is meant for both teachers and students of liturgical and sacramental theology In an effort to introduce Schmemmann to a wider audience and to celebrate his work through meaningful engagement and dialogue contributors come from a wide variety of ecclesiastical backgrounds Anglican Roman Catholic Orthodox Lutheran Presbyterian Methodist Free Church and more The Eucharist is therefore the manifestation of the Church as the new aeon it is participation in the Kingdom as the parousia as the presence of the Resurrected and Resurrecting Lord It is not the repetition of His advent or coming into the world but the lifting up of the Church into His parousia the Church's participation in His heavenly glory Fr Alexander Schmemmann Introduction to Liturgical Theology p 72

Theology as Retrieval W. Between Heaven and Russia Sarah Riccardi-Swartz, 2022-04-05 How is religious conversion

transforming American democracy In one corner of Appalachia a group of American citizens has embraced the Russian Orthodox Church and through it Putin s New Russia Historically a minority immigrant faith in the United States Russian Orthodoxy is attracting Americans who look to Russian religion and politics for answers to Western secularism and the loss of traditional family values in the face of accelerating progressivism This ethnography highlights an intentional community of converts who are exemplary of much broader networks of Russian Orthodox converts in the United States These converts sought and found a conservatism more authentic than Christian American Republicanism and a nationalism unburdened by the broken promises of American exceptionalism Ultimately both converts and the Church that welcomes them deploy the subversive act of adopting the ideals and faith of a foreign power for larger transnational political ends Offering insights into this rarely considered religious world including its far right political roots that nourish the embrace of Putin s Russia this ethnography shows how religious conversion is tied to larger issues of social politics allegiance anti democracy and citizenship These conversions offer us a window onto both global politics and foreign affairs while also allowing us to see how particular U S communities are grappling with social transformations in the twenty first century With broad implications for our understanding of both conservative Christianity and right wing politics as well as contemporary Russian American relations this book provides insight in the growing constellations of far right conservatism While Russian Orthodox converts are more likely to form the moral minority rather than the moral majority they are an important gauge for understanding the powerful philosophical shifts occurring in the current political climate in the United States and what they might mean for the future of American values ideals and democracy The Old Religion in a New World Mark A. Noll,2002 A foremost historian of religion chronicles the arrival of Christianity in the New World tracing the turning points in the development of the immigrant church which have led to today s distinctly American faith Theological Retrieval for Evangelicals Gavin Ortlund,2019-11-05 Restless for rootedness many Christians are abandoning Protestantism altogether Many evangelicals today are aching for theological rootedness often found in other Christian traditions Modern evangelicalism is not known for drawing from church history to inform views on the Christian life which can lead to a me and my Bible approach to theology But this book aims to show how Protestantism offers the theological depth so many desire without the need for abandoning a distinctly evangelical identity By focusing on particular doctrines and neglected theologians this book shows how evangelicals can draw from the past to meet the challenges of the present Faith Reads David Rainey,2008-07-30 At last a resource for librarians who wish to build or develop their nonfiction collection and use it to better serve the needs of adult Christian readers Covering the three major branches of Christianity Roman Catholic Protestant and Orthodox the author organizes more than 600 titles into subject categories ranging from biography the arts and education to theology devotion and spiritual warfare Award winning classics are noted Introductory narrative frames the literature and helps librarians better understand Christian literature and learn how to establish selection criteria for building a Christian nonfiction
