Publications Combined: Fake News, Conspiracy Theories, and Lies: Information Laundering In the 21st Century, 2018-09-06 The purpose of this research broadly speaking is to expose the threat that fake news poses to our national security This thesis answers the question Can the information laundering model or a modified version of it be used to explain how the internet is exploited to spread fake news and the resulting threat to the United States I assert that a well crafted narrative whether true or false can be spread rapidly online due to the accessibility and interconnectedness of the internet ecosystem I then articulate how these narratives can be further accelerated and disseminated when propagandists take advantage of existing processes that improve the customization ease of access and availability of information online I do this by modifying the information laundering model and then using the new model to examine the interconnectedness of search engines blogs social networking platforms and media academic outlets and how these connections can be exploited to launder false or purposefully misleading information into public discourse Finally I demonstrate how this process allows adversarial nations criminals and malicious actors to increase public discord undermine democracy and threaten Americans physical and cognitive security Contains the following studies 1 Fake News Conspiracy Theories and Lies An Information Laundering Model for Homeland Security 2 THE COMMAND OF THE TREND SOCIAL MEDIA AS A WEAPON IN THE INFORMATION AGE 3 PUTIN S PROPAGANDA WAR IS HE WINNING 4 Cyber Terrorism and Cyber Crime There Is a Difference 5 CYBERDETERRANCE IN 2035 REDEFINING THE FRAMEWORK FOR SUCCESS 6 Countering Russian Active Measures

Chinese of Africa. Stefan Asemota, 2025-01-09. As the plane took off I was leaving more than just my father. I was leaving behind the last bit of hope I had. When the grief of losing a loved one hijacks his life, Stefan finds himself on a raw, unfiltered journey home with a father he barely knew, armed with nothing but questions and a desperate need to understand. The Chinese of Africa is a personal and sociopolitical memoir that explores Stefan's transformative journey through grief, cultural identity, and a critical examination of Nigeria's socioeconomic structure. Following the loss of his Swiss mother, Stefan accompanies his Nigerian father on a poignant return to his native land, seeking to bridge the emotional distance between them and understand the complex challenges facing contemporary Nigeria. His mother's death becomes the emotional catalyst propelling his journey of reconnection, both with his father and his father's homeland. Grief is portrayed not as a debilitating force, but as a transformative experience that opens pathways to deeper understanding. He uses this personal pain to explore the African parenting culture that has traditionally made it difficult for sons to connect with their fathers. The Chinese of Africa is not just a travel memoir or a personal grief narrative, but a sophisticated sociopolitical exploration of a man who shows the problems affecting his nation and his continent and how historical forces like slavery and colonisation continue to shape African societies. Stefan doesn't just describe problems affecting the Nigerian culture; he tries to understand their roots and imagine workable solutions. He explains how complicated social rules make it hard for fathers and sons to truly understand each other. Growing up between two cultures gives him a unique view of Nigeria's challenges and leveraging his personal stories and careful observation he shows how family dynamics reflect larger social issues Through his grief hallucinations poems thoughts personal experiences and systemic analysis Stefan offers a unique perspective about himself his family his mother his nation and Nigeria s complex societal landscape He shows how personal stories can reveal larger truths about culture identity and growth This book will hook you from the very first page to the last with its breathtaking genre defying exploration that shatters expectations It is perfect for readers who crave memoirs from authors like Chris Whitaker Alison Espach and Leigh Bardugo
