Frost, 2021-05-01 Uses a historical study of bookselling and readers as a way to question and rethink our understanding of the market for symbolic goods Combining historical study theorization and experimental fiction this book takes commodity culture and book retail around 1900 as the prime example of a market of symbolic goods With the port of Southampton England as his case study Simon R Frost reveals how the city's bookshops with their combinations of libraries haberdashery stationery and books sustained and were sustained by the dreams of ordinary readers and how together they created the values powering this market The goods in this market were symbolic and were not consumed but read Their readings were created between other readers and texts in happy disobedience to the neoliberal laws of the free market Today such reader created social markets comprise much of the world's branded economies which is why Frost calls for a new understanding of both literary and market values Payment in Love Penny Jordan, 2018-02-12 Read this classic romance by New York Times bestselling author Penny Jordan now available for the first time in e book Indebted to the tycoon To save her father's life Heather Burns must swallow her pride and ask billionaire tycoon Kyle Bennett for help Six years ago her childish jealousy and deep insecurity drove Kyle away from the only home he'd ever known No matter how much Heather regrets what she did she knows Kyle will never forgive her but he will make her pay Back in each other's lives the chemistry between them sizzles like never before But can she trust the man she once betrayed with something as precious as her heart Originally published in 1987 A Perilous Marriage (a hero pretends to be in love with the heroine Regency romance) Ruth Ann Nordin, All Eris wants is a love match Miss Eris Tumilson longs for a love match Unfortunately being a wallflower who spends most of her time reading and doing embroidery isn't the kind of thing that attracts gentlemen But at long last the spinster gets her chance Her brother arranges a marriage for her with the Duke of Jowett When her new husband dies on their wedding night her hopes are dashed There will be no love match There's not even the prospect of a child on the way Though a widow she might as well still be a spinster Then Mr Charles Duff comes along to visit her and something begins to stir up within her that she was determined to put behind her once and for all the desire for a love match All Charles wants is to prove his friend was murdered Charles would rather focus on his investments than take a wife But when his friend dies on his wedding night he knows it's not from natural causes His friend was murdered And he's sure Eris did it The problem He has to prove it since no one believes him So he comes up with a plan to make Eris believe he's fallen in love with her Little does he realize that as soon as he steps through the doorway of her townhouse he'll start to discover that this shy wallflower is a hidden gem among ladies and it'll be difficult to tell the difference between pretending to be in love and really being in love Charles originally showed up in Kidnapping the Viscount Eris originally showed up in The Reclusive Earl London
