Gauteng Preparatory Exam Papers 2013:

The Report: South Africa 2013 Oxford Business Group, 2013-09-04 The Rainbow Nation benefits from an internationally competitive private sector which accounts for roughly 70% of GDP and extremely competitive infrastructure its utility sector for example produces just under half of the total power generated on the African continent South Africa represents by far the most developed market in Africa but there are still some structural challenges it is grappling with Government strategies have set a target of increasing labour market participation from 54% in 2010 to 65% by 2030 bringing the number of workers in the formal sector to 25.3m people and lowering unemployment from 25% to 6% While its fiscal space is narrow long term investments in infrastructure education and health are expected to be key to attaining its growth potential Recent years have seen both the public and private sectors look to strengthen regulatory frameworks in mining and industry in some cases like the automotive sector with impressive results Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

Development In Modern Africa Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2019-10-08 Development in Modern Africa Past and Present Perspectives contributes to our understanding of Africa's experiences with the development process It does so by adopting a historical and contemporary analysis of this experience The book is set within the context of critiques on development in Africa that have yielded two general categories of analysis skepticism and pessimism While not overlooking the shortcomings of development the themes in the book express an optimistic view of Africa's development experiences highlighting elements that can be tapped into to enhance the condition of African populations and their states By using case studies from precolonial colonial and postcolonial Africa contributors to the volume demonstrate that human instincts to improve material social and spiritual words are universal They are not limited to the Western world which the term and process of development are typically associated with Before and after contact with the West Africans have actively created institutions and values that they have actively employed to improve individual and community lives This innovative spirit has motivated Africans to integrate or experiment with new values and structures challenges and solutions to human welfare that resulted from contact with colonialism and the postcolonial global community The book will be of interest to academics in the fields of history African studies and regional studies

The Post-Election Violence in Kenya Sosteness Francis Materu, 2014-12-04 Since the historic Nuremberg Trial of 1945 an international customary law principle has developed that commission of a core crime under international law war crimes genocide crimes against humanity and aggression should not go unpunished History shows that when in Africa such violations occurred especially as a result of election disputes national and regional actors including the African Union resorted to political rather than legal responses However when crimes against humanity were alleged to have been committed in Kenya during the 2007 2008 post election violence a promising road map for criminal accountability was agreed upon alongside a political solution In the spirit of this road map the author analyzes the post election violence in Kenya from a legal point of view He extensively examines legal options for domestic criminal accountability and discusses both retributive prosecutions and restorative justice mainly truth commission mechanisms being the main legal responses to the gross violations of human rights Furthermore he thoroughly investigates the Kenya situation before the ICC and the legal cum political responses to the ICC intervention in Kenya Practitioners and academics in the field of international criminal law and related disciplines as well as political sciences and legal history will find in this book highly relevant information about alternative legal approaches of the fight against and punishment of crimes against humanity as defined under the ICC Statute

The Global Practice of Forensic Science Douglas H. Ubelaker, 2014-11-24 The Global Practice of Forensic Science presents histories issues patterns and diversity in the applications of international forensic science Written by 64 experienced and internationally recognized forensic scientists the volume documents the practice of forensic science in 28 countries from Africa the Americas Asia Australia and Europe Each country's chapter explores factors of political history academic linkages the influence of individual cases facility development types of cases examined integration within forensic science recruitment training funding certification accreditation quality control technology disaster preparedness legal issues research and future directions Aimed at all scholars interested in international forensic science the volume provides detail on the diverse fields within forensic science and their applications around the world

Hypogene Karst Regions and Caves of the World Alexander Klimchouk, Arthur N. Palmer, Jo De Waele, Augusto S. Auler, Philippe Audra, 2017-08-17 This book illustrates the diversity of hypogene speleogenetic processes and void conduit patterns depending on variations of the geological environments by presenting regional and cave specific case studies The cases include both well known and newly recognized hypogene karst regions and caves of the world They all focus on geological hydrogeological geodynamical and evolutionary contexts of hypogene speleogenesis The last decade has witnessed the boost in recognition of the possibility global occurrence and practical importance of hypogene karstification speleogenesis i.e. the development of solutional porosity and permeability by upwelling flow independent of recharge from the overlying or immediately adjacent surface Hypogene karst has been identified and documented in many regions where it was previously overlooked or misinterpreted The book enriches the basis for generalization and categorization of hypogene karst and thus improves our ability to adequately model hypogene karstification and predict related porosity and permeability It is a book which benefits every researcher student and practitioner dealing with karst

African Paleoecology and Human Evolution Sally C. Reynolds, René Bobe, 2022-06-09 Humans evolved in the dynamic landscapes of Africa under conditions of pronounced climatic geological and environmental change during the past 7 million years This book brings together detailed records of the paleontological and archaeological sites in Africa that provide the basic evidence for understanding the environments in which we evolved Chapters cover specific sites with comprehensive accounts of their geology paleontology paleobotany and their ecological significance for our evolution Other chapters provide important regional syntheses of past ecological conditions This book is unique in merging a broad geographic scope all of Africa and deep time framework the past 7 million years in discussing the geological context and paleontological records of our evolution and that of organisms that evolved alongside our ancestors It will offer important insights to anyone interested in human evolution including researchers and graduate students in paleontology archaeology anthropology and geology

Urbanization and Industrialization for Africa's Transformation, 2017 The 2017 Economic Report on Africa focuses on the linkages between industrialization and urbanization Urbanization is one of Africa mega trends with profound implications for the social economic environmental dimensions of growth and transformation Theory and experience demonstrate that industrialization and urbanization can be mutually reinforcing processes It is therefore imperative to explore the linkages between urbanization and industrialization given the profound implications for structural transformation in Africa So far current policy narratives and frameworks on structural transformation and industrialization in Africa have largely failed to factor in the spatial and urban dimensions of industrialization and in particular the advantages presented by productivity enhancement and agglomeration effects generated by cities Yet the nexus between urbanization and industrialization is of particular relevance for Agenda 2063 and the 2030 Agenda on Sustainable Development Both agendas recognize urbanization as a critical factor for sustainable development It is also important to consider urbanization and industrialization in light of Africa's engagement with the Third United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development Habitat III to be held in Quito Ecuador in October 2016 In this context African policy makers have clearly recognized urbanization as an engine of structural transformation for inclusive and sustainable growth
