South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index Knowledge, Curriculum and Equity Brian Barrett,Ursula Hoadley,John Morgan,2017-07-20 In 2008 the first in a series of symposia established a social realist case for knowledge as an alternative to the relativist tendencies of the constructivist post structuralist and postmodernist approaches dominant in the sociology of education The second symposium focused on curriculum and the development of a theoretical language grounded in social realism to talk about issues of knowledge and curriculum Finally the third symposium brought together researchers in a broad range of contexts to build on these ideas and arguments and with a concerted empirical focus bring these social realist ideas and arguments into conversation with data Knowledge Curriculum and Equity Social Realist Perspectives contains the work of the third symposium where the strengths and gaps in the social realist approach are identified and where there is critical recognition of the need to incrementally extend the theories through empirical study Fundamentally the problem that social realism is seeking to address is about understanding the social conditions of knowledge production and exchange as well as its structuring in the curriculum and in pedagogy The central concern is with the on going social reproduction of inequality through schooling and exploring whether and how foregrounding specialised knowledge and its access holds the possibility for interrupting it This book consists of 13 chapters by different authors working in Oceania Asia Europe Africa and North America From very different vantage points the authors focus their theoretical and empirical sights on the assumptions about knowledge that underpin educational processes and the pursuit of more equitable schooling for all Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly,1997 Education and Society ,2002 Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly,1997 Pedagogy in Poverty Ursula Hoadley,2017-08-09 As South Africa transitioned from apartheid to democracy changes in the political landscape as well as educational agendas and discourse on both a national and international level shaped successive waves of curriculum reform over a relatively short period of time Using South Africa as a germane example of how curriculum and pedagogy can interact and affect educational outcomes Pedagogy in Poverty explores the potential of curricula to improve education in developing and emerging economies worldwide and ultimately to reduce inequality Incorporating detailed empirical accounts of life inside South African classrooms this book is a much needed contribution to international debate surrounding optimal curriculum and pedagogic forms for children in poor schools Classroom level responses to curriculum policy reforms reveal some implications of the shifts between a radical progressive approach and traditional curriculum forms Hoadley focuses on the crucial role of teachers as mediators between curriculum and pedagogy and explores key issues related to teacher knowledge by examining the teaching of reading and numeracy at the foundational levels of schooling Offering a data rich historical sociology of curriculum and pedagogic change this book will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education sociology of education curriculum studies educational equality and school reform and the policy and politics of education Education Policy Reform Trends in G20 Members Yan Wang,2014-01-17 G20 members bring together the world's major advanced and emerging economies as well as the European Union Together they represent some 90% of global GDP 80% of global trade and two thirds of the world's population In recognition of educational development as a key driver of economic development the G20 members have put education reform high on their policy agenda in order to meet the challenges and embrace the opportunities ahead Their experiences and lessons in education reform will not only showcase the global trend of education development but also will provide valuable reference and inspiration for undertaking education reform to advance national development in China as well as other countries This book documents recent policy reform in G20 members systems showcases the global trends in education policy serves as a valuable reference tool and also provide inspiration for undertaking education reform to advance development in related countries Musical Bows of Southern Africa Sazi Dlamini,2020-12-10 Musical Bows of Southern Africa brings together current scholarly research that documents a rich regional diversity as well as cultural relationships in bow music knowledge and contemporary practices The book is framed as a critical appraisal of traditional ethnomusicological studies of the region complementing pioneering studies and charting contexts for a contemporary engagement with bow music as an exchangeable cultural practice Each contribution is written by an expert in the field and collectively demonstrates the multidisciplinary potential of bow music highlighting the several fields of knowledge that intersect with bow music including ethno organology applied ethnomusicology composition music literacy social development cultural economics history orality performance and language Contemporary South Africa and the Political Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose,Isaac Khambule,Nene Ernest Khalema,2025-02-21 South Africa's struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid As such understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa's place in it is of great importance This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post apartheid South African state has recast its nation building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post apartheid constitution policy directives and democratic political integration economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post apartheid state's apparent neo liberal turn The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state These trends include the impact of globalisation regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development This volume will be a valuable resource to academics researchers and students in the fields of regional studies economics and political theory as well as policymakers planners and local economic development practitioners A Vision for Science Education Roger Cross,2004-08-02 One of the most important and consistent voices in the reform of science education over the last thirty years has been that of Peter Fensham His vision of a democratic and socially responsible science education for all has inspired change in schools and colleges throughout the world Often moving against the tide Fensham travelled the world to promote his radical ideology He was appointed Australia s first Professor of Science Education and was later made a Member of the Order of Australia in recognition of his work in this new and emerging field of study In this unique book leading science educators from around the world examine and discuss Fensham s key ideas Each describes how his arguments proposals and recommendations have affected their own practice and extend and modify his message in light of current issues and trends in science education The result is a vision for the future of science teaching internationally Academics researchers and practitioners in science education around the world will find this book a fascinating insight into the life and work of one of the foremost pioneers in science education The book will also make inspiring reading for postgraduate students of science education Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan,2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden s revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses Civil Engineering ,1997 Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education,2016 South Africa Survey ,1997 Proceedings ,2002 Mercury ,1996 Mercury gives informed perspectives on salient issues in research education history and public policy relating to astronomy Drum ,1999 South African Journal of Science ,1995 International Handbook of
