Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years Philosophies of Islamic Education Mujaddad Zaman, Nadeem A. Memon, 2016-03-31 The study of Islamic education has hitherto remained a tangential inquiry in the broader focus of Islamic Studies In the wake of this neglect a renaissance of sorts has occurred in recent years reconfiguring the importance of Islam's attitudes to knowledge learning and education as paramount in the study and appreciation of Islamic civilization Philosophies of Islamic Education stands in tandem to this call and takes a pioneering step in establishing the importance of its study for the educationalist academic and student alike Broken into four sections it deals with theological pedagogic institutional and contemporary issues reflecting the diverse and often competing notions and practices of Islamic education As a unique international collaboration bringing into conversation theologians historians philosophers teachers and sociologists of education Philosophies of Islamic Education intends to provide fresh means for conversing with contemporary debates in ethics secularization theory child psychology multiculturalism interfaith dialogue and moral education In doing so it hopes to offer an important and timely contribution to educational studies as well as give new insight for academia in terms of conceiving learning and education Glimpses into Primary School Teacher Education in South Africa Sarah Gravett, Elizabeth Henning, 2020-11-05 This book explores the current landscape of Initial Teacher Education ITE in primary schools in South Africa Considering recent policy directives and initiatives it highlights the dilemmas of ITE for the primary school and gives a thorough account of innovations and initiatives to improve ITE The book presents what works best for quality preparation of teachers in the Global South where many children rely on their teachers and school life to break the cycle of poverty Chapters draw on evidence from workplace learning pre service study and primary school teacher education policy to highlight examples of promising change in teacher education in South Africa addressing the clichés of theory versus practice head on This book successfully brings out the challenging aspects of teacher education for childhood learning which has otherwise been regarded as the softer option for a career in education This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of teacher education African education educational policy international education and comparative education Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education International Education Reform and Language Education South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinothan Naidoo, 2018-08-24 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning

Civil Remedies and Human Rights in Flux Ekaterina Aristova,Ugljesa Grusic,2022-02-24 What private law avenues are open to victims of human rights violations This innovative new collection explores this question across sixteen jurisdictions in the Global South and Global North It examines existing mechanisms in domestic law for bringing civil claims in relation to the involvement of states corporations and individuals in specific categories of human rights violation i assault or unlawful arrest and detention of persons ii environmental harm and iii harmful or unfair labour conditions Taking a truly global perspective it assesses the question in jurisdictions as diverse as Kenya Switzerland the US and the Philippines A much needed and important new statement on how to respond to human rights violations
