Probings and Re-Probings Sankar Ray,Shaibal Gupta,2021-11-01 Controversy was the breath of Marx s life and he revelled in it We are therefore not at all apologetic wrote Puran Chand Joshi in the preface to Karl Marx A Symposium published in 1968 commemorating the 150th birth anniversary of Marx adding further It is in the best Indian tradition to operate with belief and hope that it is only through the clash of ideas that truth emerges At a time when a

Marxian renaissance has been taking place in academia Joshi's words reverberate with a new vitality and evanescence of official Marxism and official Marxist parties notwithstanding There is no denying that the so called Marxists now pay dearly for wavering between a rather mechanistic interpretation of crisis and its opposite the conviction that capitalism could only be overcome by an act of will This book is the outcome of an international conference on Karl Marx organised by ADRI in Patna between June 16 and 20 2018 keeping the new Marxian reality in mind Over 50 scholars from across the world sent papers to the Conference covering topics such as economics politics society philosophy etc ADRI welcomed them with an open mind in sync with the Marxian reawakening that treats Marx historically and critically This book is co published with Aakar Books New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Quality

of Life Improvement: Smart Approaches for the Working and Aging Populations Sabina Baraković, Zahid

Akhtar, Jasmina Barakovic Husic, 2024-03-19 Quality of life QoL is a broad concept that has many definitions and meanings depending on the context under consideration It can be perceived as the overall enjoyment of life and a multidimensional concept which emphasizes the self perceptions of an individual's current state of mind which is affected in a complex way by the person's physical health psychological state personal beliefs social relationships and their relationship to salient features of their environment On the other hand demographic data suggests an increased need for workers worldwide and a rapid aging trend in the active workforce as well as in general This trend of workforce deficit and population aging will be even more prominent in the future Therefore in order to have and sustain a healthy motivated and productive workforce but also healthy independent and active elderly adults one must improve their QoL and vice versa Improving QoL will improve general public health and in turn create communities who can contribute in diverse and positive ways to both promote and sustain health for future generations      Taiwan's Senior Learning Movement Brian Findsen,Hui-Chuan Wei,Ai-tzu Li,2022-03-21 This volume provides an in depth analysis of historical and recent developments of senior learning in Taiwan where publications in English have been scant It takes a broader view on lifelong learning and active ageing from a theoretical conceptual base written by prominent international authors this represents the outside in perspective The inside out on the other hand signifies an in depth investigation of initiatives written by authors from Taiwan who are closely involved with developments in policy and practice The volume is situated theoretically in the intersection of complementary concepts such as lifelong learning active ageing later life learning learning communities and social movements It is located geographically and culturally in East Asia where senior learning education is expanding in response to large populations of older adults and concerns about their physical and social well being It is argued that Taiwan is leading the way in terms of innovation and community engagement in regard to older adult learning education and can thus serve as a model for neighboring countries By analyzing historical precedents cultural dynamics policy trends research sub fields and community engagement this book is of interest to both East Asian and Western scholars practitioners policy makers and students amongst the fields of lifelong learning social gerontology and educational psychology      Probation, Mental Health and Criminal Justice Charlie Brooker,Coral Sirdifield,2022-08-05 This collection of research and evaluation explores issues in mental health and probation across the globe The volume offers insight into a wide range of interrelated topics that address the mental health and mental health needs of those under probation supervision The chapters embrace a range of diverse mental health concerns The underpinning assumption is that offenders should receive mental healthcare that is equivalent to that received by the general population where this is appropriate This overview is informed by perspectives from academics and practitioners based in England and the Republic of Ireland and also includes the views of people with lived experience of the Criminal Justice System Building upon and adding to the existing literature in this field the book will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers as well as those training to work in and currently working in the criminal justice and mental health field and would also be of interest to those working in related healthcare settings      Thomas'
