Shakespearean Spaces in Australian Literary Adaptations for Children and Young Adults Michael Marokakis, 2022-07-29 Shakespearean Spaces in Australian Literary Adaptations for Children and Young Adults offers a comprehensive examination of Shakespearean adaptations written by Australian authors for children and Young Adults The 20 year period crossing the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries came to represent a diverse and productive era of adapting Shakespeare in Australian literature As an analysis of Australian and international marketplaces physical and imaginative spaces and the body as a site of meaning this book reveals how the texts are ideologically bound to and disseminate Shakespearean cultural capital in contemporary ways Combining current research in children s literature and Bourdieu s theory of cultural capital deepens the critical awareness of the status of Australian literature while illuminating a corpus of literature underrepresented by the pre existing concentration on adaptations from other parts of the world Of particular interest is how these adaptations merge Shakespearean worlds with the spaces inhabited by young people such as the classroom the stage the imagination and the gendered body The readership of this book would be academics researchers and students of children s literature studies and Shakespeare studies particularly those interested in Shakespearean cultural theory transnational adaptation and literary appropriation High school educators and pre service teachers would also find this book valuable as they look to broaden and strengthen their use of adaptations to engage students in Shakespeare studies

Developing Writers Across the Primary and Secondary Years Honglin Chen,Debra Myhill,Helen Lewis,2020-03-09 Writing development and pedagogy is a high priority area particularly with standardised testing showing declines in writing across time and through the years of schooling However to date there are relatively few texts for teachers and teacher educators which detail how best to enable the children to become confident autonomous and agentic writers of the future Developing Writers Across the Primary and Secondary Years provides cumulative insights into how writing develops and how it can be taught across years of compulsory schooling This edited collection is a timely and original contribution addressing a significant literacy need for teachers of writing across three key stages of writing development covering early 4 7 years old primary 7 12 years old and secondary years 12 16 years old in Anglophone countries Each section addresses two broader themes becoming a writer with a child oriented focus and writing pedagogy with a teacher oriented focus Together the book brings to bear rigorous research and deep professional understanding of the writing classroom It offers a novel approach conceiving of writing development as a dynamic and multidimensional concept Such an integrated interdisciplinary understanding enables pedagogical thinking and development to address more holistically the complex act of writing Australian Government Publications ,1987

Culture and Economy in the Age of Social Media Christian Fuchs,2015-01-09 Understanding social media requires us to engage with the individual and collective meanings that diverse stakeholders and participants give to platforms It also requires us to analyse how social media companies try to make profits how and which labour creates this profit who creates social media ideologies and the conditions under which such ideologies emerge In short understanding social media means coming to grips with the relationship between culture and the economy In this thorough study Christian Fuchs one of the leading analysts of the Internet and social media delves deeply into the subject by applying the approach of cultural materialism to social media offering readers theoretical concepts contemporary examples and proposed opportunities for political intervention Culture and Economy in the Age of Social Media is the ultimate resource for anyone who wants to understand culture and the
