Illegal immigration has actually ended up being a substantial problem in the United States, it is estimated that there are about twelve million unlawful immigrants residing in the U. S. today and that number is growing larger every day. This concern has triggered several social, financial, safety, and law issues within the nation. The state and federal government is utilizing billions of dollars on things such as school, well-being, and medical and getting minimal or no money in return merely because they are providing out the cash to unlawful immigrants who do not pay taxes to help fund things. Despite the fact that illegal immigrants help the economy, take low paying tasks, and improve the general picture of America, the U. S. must not enable any persons who enter this country illegally to remain in this nation due to the fact that, the unlawful immigrants create social, economic, safety, and law problems for the nation. The United States has a long history of immigration from various countries. People first began immigrating to the U. S. in around the year 1815. "Between the year 1815 and 1915 it is approximated that thirty million Europeans showed up into the United States" (Willis par. 1). Once individuals started immigrating to this nation is when the issues began to begin relating to prohibited migration. People of the time wanted to get into, and be a part of this country they just did not want to do it the right way. Charles Willis stated, "Throughout the large wave of immigration the U. S. restricted the variety of people allowed to enter the U. S., and a certain quantity from each country. However the door was exposed for Mexicans, who even then were preferred by companies for their cheap labor. As history would show, this legal immigration led to illegal immigration" (par.). This is when illegal immigration is believed to have begun. Furthermore, there are more facts in history about illegal immigration taking place. For example, a L. A. Times story from April 1926 noted that many of the ranch workers in California's Imperial Valley entered the U. S. illegally without paying the fee or passing the literacy test (Gheen par. 6). Because of all the immigration, both legal and illegal, the government needed to do something to be able to control what was going on, therefore between 1882 and 1917 the U. S. government introduced laws regulating immigration. Immigration legal and illegal did not just occur in history, but is a current event in the United States today. Illegal immigration has become a larger problem in modern times than it ever was in the history of this country. It is estimated that there are twelve million total illegal immigrants residing in the United States (Miller 11). It is also estimated that 1 to 1.5 million immigrants enter the U. S. each year, and of that million 850,000 people are believed to be illegal (Miller 12). All the people entering the country illegally can cause an abundance of problems. There are only a certain number of immigrants allowed into the country each year. All...
