Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation. Authors' voices come from a variety of contexts: some historical, some contemporary, some providing analyses over time. But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity, belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced, invisible, marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative. The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider. This book is thus about who we are, not only demographically but also in terms of the past, especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks. The concluding chapters provide ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive, critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts.

The Social and Political History of Southern Africa's Languages Tomasz Kamusella, Finex Ndhlovu, 2017-11-21 This book is the first to offer an interdisciplinary and comprehensive reference work on the often marginalised languages of southern Africa. The authors analyse a range of different concepts and questions including language and sociality, social and political history, multilingual government and educational policies. In doing so, they present significant original research ensuring that the work will remain a key reference point for the subject. This ambitious and wide-ranging edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of southern African languages, sociolinguistics, history and politics.

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Albert Mufanechiya, 2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post-independence educational development in Zimbabwe. It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers, poor salaries, student activism, minority languages and curriculum innovations. This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression. Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda. Consequently, this has resulted in a nation in crisis, marked with high turnover, poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners. The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy.

Bilingualism, Language Contact, and Language Planning E. A. Ngara, 1982 Zimbabwe Books in Print, 1995 Occasional Papers, 1993 A Survey of the Minority Languages of Zimbabwe Simooya Jerome Hachipola, 1998 Zimbabwe is one of the few countries in the region with no comprehensive information on its language situation. This book seeks to fill the gap. Language policy in Zimbabwe has evolved around the three official languages: English, Ndebele and Shona. The author, a lecturer in Bantu linguistics at the University of Zimbabwe, highlights the status of the indigenous minority languages by identifying communities speaking minority languages, their locations and the role minority languages have played in the education system and in the media. Languages covered are Kalanga, Hwesa, Sotho, Shangani, Tsonga, Tonga, of Mudzi District, Venda, Tonga, Chikunda, Doma, Chewa, Nyanja, Khoisan, Tshwawo, Barwe, Tswana, Fingo, or Xhosa, Sena, and Nambya. The author also gives recommendations of how minority languages may be incorporated into future language policy. Multidisciplinary Humane Perspectives on Education

Lawrence Ogbo Ugwuanyi, 2024-01-16

While the majority of mankind access education and while different ideologies and philosophies may motivate education, educational delivery and attainment, it is important to discuss how through these humanity may become more human by realising its full potential. This book addresses issues such as equality, inclusiveness, cosmopolitan worldviews, and conflicting pressures in education in a manner that makes every member of the human community accountable to the others through education.
