International Literary Market Place ,1994 Library Literature Produced in Pakistan, 1983-1990 ,1992 A bibliography Purifying the Land of the Pure Farahnaz Ispahani,2017-01-02 When Pakistan emerged as an independent state in 1947 it sought to provide a new homeland and safe harbor for South Asia s Muslims the largest religious minority in the subcontinent at the time Yet this project was not exclusive Taking its name from Pakstan an acronym composed of the key letters of its constituent regions Punjab Afghania Kashmir Sindh and Baluchistan Pakistan at first welcomed all of its new citizens Muslim and non Muslim alike Non Muslims comprised 23 percent of the total population and non Sunnis comprised a quarter of the Muslim population Today non Muslims comprise a mere 3 percent of the population and in recent years all non Sunnis have been subjected to increasing levels of persecution and violence What happened In Purifying the Land of the Pure Farahnaz Ispahani analyzes Pakistan s policies towards its religious minority populations beginning from the time of independence in 1947 She notes the period of transition from an inclusive policy to an exclusive one citing the influence of a number of religious and political leaders who invoked a new vision for Pakistan The word pakistan is Urdu for Land of the Pure thus in their view it followed that the objective for Pakistan s creation should be more specific and narrow to create an Islamic State In 1949 Pakistan s Constituent Assembly ratified this objective which set the country on the path it was to follow But as Ispahani carefully notes the event that accelerated the pace towards intolerance of non Sunnis was General Zia ul Haq s forceful ascent to power in 1977 His military regime promoted Sunni Islam at the expense of other denominations so that by the end of his reign Pakistan was no longer a welcome place for minorities Many fled but those who remained faced escalating persecution from both state and non state actors Tens of thousands died in the ensuing purifying attacks Ispahani traces this history stressing how the contradictions at the heart of the Pakistani state building project have fueled the intolerance Concise yet sweeping in its coverage Purifying the Land of the Pure is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding why Pakistan remains plagued by radicalism and violence CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen,2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University Madrasa Education ,2005 With reference to India Introduction to Islamic Banking and Finance Brian Kettell,2011-10-07 Introduction to Islamic Banking and Finance is a succinct guide to the key characteristics of Islamic banking highlighting how these differ from conventional banking This detailed book illustrates how Islamic banking is consistent with the Sharia a a key element of which is the prohibition on collecting and paying interest This central religious precept appears to rule out most aspects of modern finance but it does allow money to be used for trading tangible assets and business which can then generate a profit Brian Kettell s book looks at all aspects of Islamic banking including chapters on its creation and evolution through to detailed discussions of the issues involved in the Sharia a contracts of Murabaha Mudaraba Musharaka Ijara Istisna a and Salam Islamic insurance Takaful is also covered Finally the book takes a look at Sharia a law and Sharia a boards indicating the roles and responsibilities that come with membership Islamic banks have been operating in places such as Bahrain Saudi Arabia Malaysia and Dubai for some time Conventional bankers have traditionally viewed the sector as a small exotic niche but recent years have seen a dramatic surge in popularity A number of Western investment banks have started working with Muslim clerics to create new ranges of financial products designed for devout Muslims a large and growing market Although estimates of the size of the Islamic finance industry vary greatly everyone agrees that it is expanding rapidly and this is the perfect book for anyone looking to understand the industry Social Welfare Newsletter , Ansari's Trade Directory of Pakistan and Who's Who ,1952 International Literary Market Place R R Bowker Publishing,1990 Ansari's Trade & Industrial Directory of Pakistan , Economics of an Islamic Economy Rauf A.

Azhar,2010 This book challenges the interventionist stance of Islamic economics as well as its presumption that riba equals interest An Islamic economy it argues is essentially a market economy but it differs from capitalist economies because both its institutions and the structure of for example property rights are specifically Islamic deriving from Qur n and other sources of Islamic law The book also focuses on the similarities and differences between riba and interest establishes the often neglected connection between the two and explores the ramifications of this connection for Islamic financial systems

Barque's Pakistan Trade Directory and Who's who ,1975 Educational Guide of Pakistan ,2003

Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez,2020-11-29 This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia The Subtle Subversion ,2005 Ideologically Motivated Sexual Grooming Mariz Tadros,Grant Sinnamon,Abira Ashfaq,Seema Rana Maheshwary,Raja M. Ali Saleem,Mary James Gill,Fatima Abdullahi Suleiman,Prince Charles Dickson,Oluwafunmilayo Josephine Para-Mallam,M. Sudhir Selvaraj,Meghana Choukkar,2025-07-15 Across diverse societies coercion often hides behind cultural norms religious expectations legal systems and gendered power structures This book exposes a disturbing but overlooked form of abuse ideologically motivated sexual grooming the manipulation of women and girls from religious minorities for both sexual exploitation and coerced religious conversion Through case studies from three parts of the world the book examines how this phenomenon unfolds across different faiths and contexts The stories shared reveal a consistent pattern women from minority backgrounds are sometimes targeted not only because of gender but also because of their religious identity This book is not a critique of interfaith relationships or religious belief It does nonetheless interrogate whether there is an ideological driver behind men s insistence on women converting even when the legal system does not require it In all the cases of the women whose stories are told here the same question arises If there is mutual love and respect why is there such emphasis on and indeed glorification of the conversion of the women concerned from minority to majority religion Ideologically Motivated Sexual

Grooming is an urgent call to recognise understand and address a subtle but devastating form of gender based violence and to create conditions where all women regardless of faith can live love and believe freely School Education in India Manish Jain,Archana Mehendale,Rahul Mukhopadhyay,Padma M. Sarangapani,Christopher Winch,2018-05-11 This volume examines how the public and private domains in school education in India are informed and mediated by current market realities It moves beyond the simplistic dichotomy of pro state versus promarket factors that define most current debates in the formulations of educational reform agendas to underline how they need to be interpreted in the larger context The chapters in the volume present a series of conceptual and empirical investigations to understand the growth of private schools in India investigate the largely uncontested claims made by the private sector regarding provision of superior quality of education and their ability to address the educational needs of the poor Further the book looks at how the private public dichotomy has been extended to professional identity of teachers and teaching practices as well Rich in primary data and supported by detailed case studies this volume will be of interest to teachers scholars and researchers dealing with education educational policy school education and public policy It will also interest policy makers think tanks and civil society organisations Indian Librarian Sant Ram Bhatia,1954 Columns on Books in English and Urdu Naẓīr Şiddīqī,1998 South Asia Bulletin ,1990
