Gateways to Forever Mike Ashley, 2007-04-01 This third volume in Mike Ashley's four volume study of the science fiction magazines focuses on the turbulent years of the 1970s when the United States emerged from the Vietnam War into an economic crisis. It saw the end of the Apollo moon programme and the start of the ecology movement. This proved to be one of the most complicated periods for the science fiction magazines. Not only were they struggling to survive within the economic climate they also had to cope with the death of the father of modern science fiction John W Campbell Jr while facing new and potentially threatening opposition. The market for science fiction diversified as never before with the growth in new anthologies the emergence of semi professional magazines the explosion of science fiction in college the start of role playing gaming magazines underground and adult comics and with the success of Star Wars media magazines. This volume explores how the traditional science fiction magazines coped with this from the death of Campbell to the start of the major popular science magazine Omni and the first dreams of the Internet.

The Lucky Strike Kim Stanley Robinson, 2010-07 This stimulating little chapbook would work very well as a basis for classroom debate on speculative fiction history or the notion of free will. Publishers Weekly. The foremost writer of literary utopias Time magazine. It's no coincidence that one of our most visionary science fiction writers is also a profoundly good nature writer.

Clear And Convincing Proof Kate Wilhelm, 2014-08-01 When attorney Barbara Holloway takes a case there's no middle ground it's her rules her way. Now as she finds herself at the helm of a complex defence involving the murder of a man everybody loathed all she needs is what she most lacks clear and convincing proof. The Kelso McIvey rehabilitation center is a place of hope and healing for its patients and for the dedicated volunteers who work there. For beautiful Annie McIvey in particular it's a sanctuary from her cruel husband and for directors Naomi and Greg Boardman it's the culmination of a lifelong dream. But it's a dream about to be destroyed by Annie's husband David. A brilliant surgeon an implacable misogynist a man whose ego rivals his skill with a scalpel David McIvey plans to close the doors on the centre's good work and good people replacing it with a state of the art surgery with him at the helm. So when David's body is discovered outside the clinic early one morning it's no surprise to anyone especially Barbara Holloway that somebody dared to stop him in cold blood. Now Barbara must use her razor sharp instincts and take no prisoners attitude to defend the two members of the clinic about to stand trial for his murder. Annie McIvey and Darren Halvord are accused of having an affair and plotting to kill David but Barbara believes a more complex motive lies at the heart of the crime. In order to expose it she is forced to explore the darkest hiding place the soul beneath the skin.

The Hugo, Nebula and World Fantasy Awards Howard DeVore, 1998 Science fiction fans have voted for the Hugo Awards for best science fiction almost every year since 1953 Science fiction professionals have presented the Nebula Awards to their peers since 1965 In all this time lists of winners have been widely available but the losers have usually been ignored In 1970 long time fan Howard

DeVore started publishing a complete listing of Hugo and Nebula awards including the stories that were nominated but did not win. The fact that stories were nominated implied that they had considerable merit. Mr DeVore felt that a complete listing would let fans compare them. The International Fantasy Awards may have inspired the Hugos so he added them. DeVore brought out new editions year by year publishing and distributing them himself with the aid of a number of devoted science fiction fans. By 1998 the task had grown to the point where Mr DeVore happily relinquished the job to Advent. This edition includes introductory and historical essays explaining how each award got started and how nominees and winners are chosen plus commentary in the yearly listings.
