Creating Kosovo Elton Skendaj, 2014-12-18 In shaping the institutions of a new country what interventions from international actors lead to success and failure Elton Skendaj's investigation into Kosovo based on national survey data interviews and focus groups conducted over ten months of fieldwork leads to some surprising answers Creating Kosovo highlights efforts to build the police force the central government courts and a customs service Skendaj finds that central administration and the courts which had been developed under local authority succumbed to cronyism and corruption challenging the premise that local ownership leads to more effective state bureaucracies The police force and customs service directly managed by international actors were held to a meritocratic standard fulfilling their missions and winning public respect On the other hand local participation and contestation supported democratic institutions When international actors supported the demobilization of popular movements they undermined the ability of the public to hold elected officials accountable

EU policy and strategic thinking about its role and the development of its institutional capacity to manage conflicts Case studies of EU conflict management within the Union in its neighbourhood and further afield explore the consistency coherence and politicization of EU strategy at the implementation stage The essays examine the extent to which the EU can exert influence on conflict dynamics and outcomes Such influence depends on a number of changing factors how the EU conceptualizes conflict and policy solutions the balance of interests within the EU on the issue divided or concerted and the degree of politicization in the EU's role the scope for an external EU role and the value attached by the conflict parties to EU engagement a value that is almost wholly bound to their interest in a membership perspective or other strong relationship to the EU rather than to shared values as an end in themselves This book was based on a special issue of Ethnopolitics

Peace Operations and Organized Crime James Cockayne, Adam Lupel, 2011-05-10 Peace operations are increasingly on the front line in the international community's fight against organized crime this book explores how in some cases peace operations and organized crime are clear enemies while in others they may become tacit allies The threat posed by organized crime to international and human security has become a matter of considerable strategic concern for national and international decision makers so it is somewhat surprising how little thought has been devoted to addressing the complex relationship between organized crime and peace operations This volume addresses this gap questioning the emerging orthodoxy that portrays organized crime as an external threat to the liberal peace championed by western and allied states and delivered through peace operations Based upon a series of case studies it concludes that organized crime is both a potential enemy and a potential ally of peace operations and it argues for the need to distinguish between strategies to contain organized crime and strategies to transform the political economies in which it flourishes The editors argue for the development of intelligent transnational and transitional law enforcement that can make the most of organized crime as a potential ally for transforming political economies while at the same time containing the threat it presents as an enemy to building effective and responsible states The book will be of great interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies organised crime Security Studies and IR in general Crime-terror Alliances and the State Lyubov Grigorova, Ted Robert Gurr, 2013 This new book by Lyubov Mincheva and Ted Gurr examines the political economy of transborder violence on the European Periphery that poses grave threats to domestic and international security in Europe and elsewhere The units of analysis are unholy alliances i.e. hybrid transborder militant and criminal networks which have been active in the 1990s and the first decade of the 2000s The concept of Unholy Alliances is extended to also include the trans state criminal syndicates that arise in failed and dysfunctional states or operate within the global illicit economy It also addresses the question of what reigns supreme in securing the militants long term success money or social endowment including strong identity networks Kosovo's Foreign Policy and Bilateral Relations Liridon Lika, 2023-04-14 This edited book analyzes Kosovo's foreign policy and bilateral relations with the United States and several European countries After the 1999

Institution Building in Weak States Andrew Radin, 2020-07-01 The effort to improve state institutions in post conflict societies is a complicated business Even when foreign intervention is carried out with the best of intentions and the greatest resources it often fails What can account for this failure In Institution Building in Weak States Andrew Radin argues that the international community's approach to building state institutions needs its own reform This innovative book proposes a new strategy rooted in a rigorous analysis of recent missions In contrast to the common strategy of foreign interveners imposing models drawn from Western countries Radin shows how pursuing incremental change that accommodates local political interests is more likely to produce effective accountable and law abiding institutions Drawing on extensive field research and original interviews Radin examines efforts to reform the central government military and police in post conflict Bosnia and Herzegovina Kosovo Iraq and Timor Leste Based on his own experience in defense reform in Ukraine after 2014 Radin also draws parallels with efforts to improve state institutions outside of post conflict societies Institution Building in Weak States introduces a domestic opposition theory that better explains why institution building fails and what is required to make it work With actionable recommendations for smarter policy the book offers an important corrective for scholars and practitioners of post conflict missions international development peacebuilding and security cooperation

Volume IV of this volume contains the following: Chapter 1: General Assembly Sixty-fourth Session continued; 3 Resolutions Adopted by the General Assembly at Its Sixty-fourth Session continued; Resolutions 64/104 through 64/199; d Guest Authors of previous years' editions. Each annual edition of ARUNA is introduced by a Guest Author, a distinguished expert on UN affairs who highlights the outstanding themes of the year in review. Together with an overview provided by the editors, this introduction is intended to facilitate access to the material and, above all, to make it easier for users of ARUNA to see the forest for the trees. This year's ARUNA includes excerpts from the Report of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System (21 Sept 2009) and from a slightly edited version of a Preface to that report written by Professor Joseph E. Stiglitz. However, the roster of distinguished experts who have contributed this introduction in the past is also worthy of mention.

Jose Antonio Ocampo: ARUNA 2008-2009 edition. Professor Jose Antonio Ocampo is Co-President of the Initiative for Policy Dialogue. He is also Professor in the School of International and Public Affairs and Fellow of the Committee on Global Thought at Columbia University. Professor Ocampo previously held the positions of Under-Secretary General of the United Nations for Economic and Social Affairs, Executive Secretary of the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean, and Minister of Finance, Agriculture, and Planning of Colombia. In 2009, he was a member of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System. Professor Ocampo is also the author of numerous books and articles on macroeconomics, policy, and theory, economic development, international trade, and economic history. His recent publications include Stability with Growth: Macroeconomics, Liberalization, and Development with Joseph E. Stiglitz, Shari Spiegel, Ricardo Ffrench Davis, and Deepak Nayyar (New York: Oxford University Press, 2006). Jeffrey D. Sachs: ARUNA 2007-2008 edition. Professor Jeffrey D. Sachs is Director of the Earth Institute at Columbia University and Special Advisor to the Secretary General of the UN on the Millennium Development Goals Professor Sachs's introduction to ARUNA 2007 2008 was titled Towards a New Global Protocol on Climate Change in which he argued that solving the climate change problem will demand four steps: scientific consensus, public awareness, the development of alternative technologies and a global framework for action. He dealt in particular with the science underpinning the negotiations for a new global protocol on climate change as a successor to the Kyoto Protocol. Professor Sachs argued that climate change crises can only be solved through the goals, leadership and treaty mechanisms of the UN.

Edward C Luck ARUNA 2006 2007 edition Professor Edward C Luck is UN Special Advisor on the Responsibility to Protect and Vice President and Director of Studies at the International Peace Academy. From 1984 to 1994 he served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the UN Association of the USA. UNA USA Professor Luck's introduction to ARUNA 2006 2007 covered The responsible sovereign and the responsibility to protect in which he addressed the scope and content of what was agreed at the 2005 World Summit, the implications of the responsibility to protect (RtoP) for notions of state sovereignty and some of the conceptual, architectural and policy challenges then facing UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon's commitment to operationalizing the responsibility to protect and translating it from words to deeds.

Louise Frechette ARUNA 2005 2006 edition Ms Louise Frechette is Distinguished Fellow at the Centre for International Governance Innovation, Waterloo, Ontario. Until March 2006 she was the first Deputy Secretary General of the UN; before that she was Permanent Representative of Canada to the UN. Ms Frechette's introduction to ARUNA 2005 2006 covered United Nations reform: an unfinished story. As the first Deputy Secretary General of the UN, Ms Frechette was uniquely positioned to undertake a personal assessment of what has changed and what has not changed in the past decade at the UN and why. She examined if the UN is functioning better than it was 15 years ago, why reform is so difficult to achieve and what the future holds for the institutions.

Rubens Ricupero ARUNA 2004 2005 edition Mr Rubens Ricupero is Dean of the Fundac o Armando Alvares Penteado (FAAP), S o Paulo and was formerly Secretary General of UN Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) and Minister of Finance of Brazil. Mr Ricupero's introduction to ARUNA 2004 2005 covered The difficulty of building consensus in an age of extremes and examined the mysteries of the negotiating process leading to the outcome of the 2005 World Summit. Rather than a Grand Bargain of a comprehensive UN reform in the areas of development, security and human rights, it is argued that the Summit ended more on a note of lamentation and regret over a missed opportunity. Mr Ricupero concludes that, contrary to the daring proclamation at the outset by the Secretary General, the conditions indispensable to succeed were not in place. Indeed, it was hard to imagine that an ambitious and balanced reform package for the UN could have had any real chance of succeeding.

European Integration and Transformation in the Western Balkans Arolda Elbasani, 2013-09-02 The book investigates the scope and limitations of the transformative power of EU enlargement in the Western Balkans. The extension of EU enlargement policy to the region has generated high expectations that enlargement will regulate democratic institution building and foster reform much as it did in Central and Eastern Europe However there is very little research on whether and how unfavourable domestic conditions might mitigate the transformative power of the EU This volume investigates the role of domestic factors identifying stateness as the missing link between the assumed transformative power of the EU and the actual capacity to adopt EU rules across the region Including chapters on Croatia Serbia Macedonia Albania Kosovo and Bosnia Herzegovina leading scholars in the field offer up to date comparative analysis of key areas of institutional and policy reform including state bureaucracy rule of law electoral management environmental governance cooperation with the International Court of Justice economic liberalization and foreign policy Looking to the future and the implications for policy change European Integration and Transformation in the Western Balkans provides a new theoretical and empirical focus on this little understood area The book will be of interest to scholars and students of EU politics comparative democratisation post communist transitions and Balkan area studies

Peacebuilding and Post-War Transitions Lisa Gross, 2017-02-17 This book asks how and under what conditions external domestic interactions impact on peacebuilding outcomes during transitions to peace and democracy Why do so many peacebuilding interventions in post war states result in stalled transitions despite heavy international support This book suggests a new interaction based explanation for this puzzle and proposes an analytical framework of peacebuilding interactions Based on eight cases of peacebuilding interactions it demonstrates that the limited rationality of the actors involved in external domestic interactions influenced the post war transition results in Kosovo Drawing on interviews and focus groups the insights build on the process tracing of peacebuilding reforms in the area of Local Governance and Police Reform with a specific focus at the local level Through an in depth analysis of peacebuilding negotiations this book shows how peacebuilders use of ad hoc interaction tactics intended as heuristics to simplify decision making in overly complex post war environments have the unintended effect of offering domestic actors additional leeway to prioritise their domestic agenda often at the expense of achieving full democratisation The resulting consequences of these actions mean that even in highly resourced interventions such as those implemented in Kosovo stalled transitions become one of the most likely outcome of the peacebuilding process This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding war and conflict studies European politics security studies and IR in general

Democracy and Judicial Reforms in South-East Europe Cristina Dallara, 2014-07-08 The book analyzes the topic of judicial reforms in four countries of South East Europe focusing on two specific factors that have influenced the reforms in the past two decades the role played by the European Union in light of the east Enlargement process and the legacies of the communist regimes Specifically the aim is to account for similarities and differences in the reform paths of Slovenia Romania Croatia and Serbia In each country in fact the influence of the EU policies has been differently mediated by national factors that broadly conceived may be considered as expressing the legacies of the past regimes In some cases these legacies challenged judicial reforms and inhibited the influence of the EU in other cases they were positively overcome by following the route suggested by the EU Some explanatory factors for these differences will be proposed drawing from democratization studies Europeanization literature and comparative judicial systems The book focuses on countries having different status vis a vis the EU and differently involved in term of timing in the EU accession process some of them are new member states entered in 2004 Slovenia or in 2007 Romania others were until recently acceding countries Croatia or candidates to the membership Serbia This comparison allows investigation of the power of EU conditionality in different phases of the EU enlargement process

Unrecognized States and Secession in the 21st Century Martin Riegl, Bohumil Doboš, 2017-05-27 This book presents novel theoretical and empirical findings on the issue of unrecognized states and secession The first part of the book conceptualizes unrecognized states as entities with a national identity and which have achieved political independence yet are not internationally recognized as independent states It also addresses topics such as the role of superpowers in secessionist conflicts ontological security in post Soviet states and factors influencing the legitimacy of secession referenda In turn the book s second part presents selected case studies on various secessionist regions and territories including Kurdistan the Caucasus Kosovo and Bougainville

EU Foreign Policy and Crisis Management Operations Benjamin Pohl, 2014-03-21 This book explores the drivers of the EU s recent forays into peace and state building operations Since the Union s European now Common Security and Defence Policy ESDP CSDP became operational in 2003 the EU has conducted more than 20 civilian and military operations that broadly served to either deter aggression in host countries and or to build or strengthen the rule of law This sudden burst of EU activity in the realm of external security is interesting from both a scholarly and a policy perspective On one hand institutionalised cooperation in the field of foreign security and defence policy challenges the mainstream in IR theory which holds that in such sovereignty sensitive areas cooperation would necessarily be limited On the other hand the sheer quantity of operations suggests that the ESDP may represent a potentially significant feature of global governance In order to understand the drivers behind CSDP EU Foreign Policy and Crisis Management Operations analyses the policy output in this area including the operations conducted in the CSDP framework Up until now many studies inferred the logic behind CSDP from express intentions institutional developments and the potential of pooled capabilities By mining the rich data that CSDP operations represent in terms of the motives and ambitions of EU governments for the CSDP this book advances our understanding of the framework at large This book will be of much interest to students of European Security EU policy peacebuilding statebuilding and IR
