Manual Application To Stellenbosch University For 2015

Chris Huggins

Manual Application To Stellenbosch University For 2015:

Race in Education Gerhard Mar,,2019-05-28 There is global evidence that ghosts of notions of essentialist differences between human groups continue to haunt in various forms People draw upon ideas of religion race ethnicity gender and sexuality and nation to draw distinctions Racism xenophobia sexism and right wing populism are ongoing and increasing phenomena In addition genetic science has introduced new forms of proof which lends itself to misuse to confirm common sense perceptions The valuable contributions of the authors in this publication not only warn against such notions but offer ways of exploring exposing and challenging the ghosts and the fears engendered through their contemporary forms A Scholarship of Doctoral Education Petro du Preez,Shan Simmonds,2018-11-21 This edited collection is cohesive by a focus on becoming becoming a doctoral student becoming a researcher becoming an academic and becoming a supervisor This journey of becoming takes us from pre enrolment in a doctoral programme through the many phases of candidature and into the post doctoral environment Both advancing theory and providing very practical examples this book is of immense value to doctoral students and academics not only in South Africa for whom it should be a mandatory read but also for doctoral education researchers doctoral students and supervisors worldwide as the themes covered extend well beyond the borders of South Africa Handbook of Research on Heritage Management and Preservation Ngulube, Patrick,2018-02-02 Archives museums and libraries are pivotal to the management and preservation of any society s heritage Heritage assets should be systematically managed by putting in place proper policies maintenance procedures security and risks measures and retrieval and preservation plans The Handbook of Research on Heritage Management and Preservation is a critical scholarly resource that examines different aspects of heritage management and preservation ranging from theories that underline the field areas of convergence and divergence in the field infrastructure and the policy framework that governs the field and the influence of the changing landscape on practice Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as community involvement records legislation and collection development this book is geared towards academicians researchers and students seeking current research on heritage management and preservation Biological Invasions in South Africa Brian W. van Wilgen,John Measey,David M. Richardson,John R. Wilson,Tsungai A. Zengeya,2020-03-10 This open access volume presents a comprehensive account of all aspects of biological invasions in South Africa where research has been conducted over more than three decades and where bold initiatives have been implemented in attempts to control invasions and to reduce their ecological economic and social effects It covers a broad range of themes including history policy development and implementation the status of invasions of animals and plants in terrestrial marine and freshwater environments the development of a robust ecological theory around biological invasions the effectiveness of management interventions and scenarios for the future The South African situation stands out because of the remarkable diversity of the country and the wide range of problems encountered in its varied ecosystems which has resulted in a disproportionate investment into both research and management The South African experience holds many lessons for other parts of the world and this book should be of immense value to researchers students managers and policy makers who deal with biological invasions and ecosystem management and conservation in most other regions

Enhancing the Contribution of Sport to the Sustainable Development Goals Iain Lindsey, Tony

Chapman, 2017-04-06 Enhancing the Contribution of Sport to the Sustainable Development Goals builds on the work of previous Commonwealth publications analysing the role of sport in achieving sustainable development Aimed at governmental policy makers and other stakeholders it provides evidenced and balanced policy options supporting the effective contribution of sport towards six prioritised Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Agricultural Reform in Rwanda Chris Huggins, 2017-10-15 International observers have lauded Rwanda as an example of an African country taking control of its own development trajectory and as a market friendly destination for investment A key component of this narrative has been an ambitious programme of agricultural reform involving private firms NGOs and international charities The Rwandan government claims these reforms have been a resounding success tripling crop yields and helping to combat hunger Chris Huggins argues however that Rwanda's liberal modernising image sits poorly with the regime's continuing authoritarian tendencies Featuring in depth case studies of the effects of agricultural reform in three different regions and drawing on hundreds of interviews Huggins shows that the much vaunted liberalization of agriculture has in fact depended on the coercion of Rwandan farmers and in many cases has had a detrimental impact on their livelihoods With the Kagame regime now coming under increasing international scrutiny this work provides a timely look at the impact of market friendly authoritarianism in contemporary Africa making essential reading for students and scholars of development in the fields of sociology anthropology political science and economics Thinking Blue / Writing Red Stephen Tumino, 2024-08-08

Thinking Blue Writing Red interrogates contemporary culture across a range of texts from the pandemic Covid and Trump Speak to high theory Melville's narratives and popular culture Beyoncé's Formation and Super Bowl performance Twin Peaks metamodern cli-fi films Inspired by Derrida's idea of the secret Tumino examines the significance of social movements Black Lives Matter Occupy alter globalization and naïve art Darger Ryden to argue that these texts speak of the secrets that capitalism cannot speak Contending that the cultural surfaces narrate only the nonsecret that to see the social logic of the culture one must dig into what Bruno Latour questions as the deep dark below Thinking Blue Writing Red reads these texts to tease out the underlying narratives of the culture of capital This book will be of interest to students in several disciplines including philosophy literary and cultural studies film studies women's studies critical race studies history LGBTQ studies and environmental studies Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina

Liccardo, 2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the

symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists engineers and architects all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world The History of Geophysics in Southern Africa Johan de Beer, 2016-01-25 Geophysics is a comparatively young science which only evolved as a distinct discipline during the 19th century However its phenomena like earthquakes tsunamis volcanic eruptions and lightning had been objects of fear curiosity and speculation since ancient times In this book Johan de Beer and his research team reveal that geophysical activity in South Africa can be traced back to as early as 1488 This is a truly astonishing revelation which deserves to be firmly entrenched as part of the country's proud history The book also discusses the history and formation of South African geophysical institutions that made a huge and seldom acknowledged contribution to the technological development of southern Africa Teaching Family Law Henry Kha, Mark Henaghan, 2023-08-25 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the teaching of an eclectic range of family law topics and the unique opportunities and challenges of teaching family law in different jurisdictions from a varied international perspective Written by leading legal scholars the book addresses a gap in the scholarship to comprehensively and systematically analyse the teaching of family law The first part of the book explores ways of teaching the varied range of topics under the heading of family law and captures the diverse approaches to the discipline Chapters illustrate how the subject can be best taught in an interdisciplinary way that considers feminist perspectives and the philosophy of teaching while encompassing legal positivism empirical research and critical legal theory The second part of the book examines teaching in different jurisdictions and illustrates policy and practice in Australia New Zealand the United States Canada the United Kingdom Hong Kong and South Africa Showcasing examples of best practice of teaching family law the book will be an essential reading for legal scholars as well as researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of family law and legal education African Churches Ministering 'to and with' Persons with Disabilities Nomatter Sande,2022-08-30 This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders Making Connections Marilyn

Naidoo,2021-11-19 Because of the disconnect within the curriculum and the lack of contextual relevance African theological education is still searching for appropriate approaches to ministerial training Integrative theological education refers to systematic attempts to connect major learning experiences appropriate to the education and formation of ministers It is seen as a solution to connect and transform ministry training The main premise of this book is that the key to enhancing theological education is the intentional integration of knowing with being and doing of theory with practice and of theology with life and ministry In this way all aspects of student learning are brought together holistically highlighting an educational strategy that is concerned with connections in human experience thereby supporting student learning Making Connections offers the opportunity to consider integration as an appropriate pedagogical approach to create the correct balance in making education more meaningful and fulfilling for the African revealing humanising education grounded in African philosophy and worldview Community Rick Wadholm,Meghan D. Musy,2022-04-12 Community provides a constructive collection of essays offering biblical and theological reflections on the topic of community in honor of the Mennonite Old

Testament scholar August H Konkel s seventieth birthday As such Community follows the trajectory of Gus s own myriad contributions to scholarship that have been intentionally engaged both on behalf of and as a lively and constructive member of such community These essays present forays across the spectrum of biblical and theological studies that intersect with the many contributions of Gus s life work Advances in Asphalt Emulsion Materials for Cold Paving Technologies Jian
