Metaphysique Des Tubes The Character Of Rain:

The Character of Rain Amelie Nothomb, 2007-04-01 The Japanese believe that until the age of three children whether Japanese or not are gods each one an okosama or lord child On their third birthday they fall from grace and join the rest of the human race In Amelie Nothomb's new novel The Character of Rain we learn that divinity is a difficult thing from which to recover particularly if like the child in this story you have spent the first tow and a half years of life in a nearly vegetative state I remember everything that happened to me after the age of two and one half the narrator tells us She means this literally Once jolted out of her plant like tube like trance to the ecstatic relief of her concerned parents the child bursts into existence absorbing everything that Japan where her father works as a diplomat has to offer Life is an unfolding pageant of delight and danger a ceaseless exploration of pleasure and the limits of power Most wondrous of all is the discovery of water oceans seas pools puddles streams ponds and perhaps most of all rain one meaning of the Japanese character for her name Hers is an amphibious life The Character of Rain evokes the hilarity terror and sanctity of childhood As she did in the award winning international bestesller Fear and Trembling Nothomb grounds the novel in the outlines of her experiences in Japan but the self portrait that emerges from these pages is hauntingly universal Amelie Nothomb's novels are unforgettable immersion experiences leaving you both holding your breath with admiration your lungs aching and longing for more

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower, 2013-01-17 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don't know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English And even if we don't read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present It is also a particularly rich literature espousing ever genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the

Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English International Perspectives on Multilingual Literatures Katie Jones, Julian Preece, Aled Rees, 2020-10-28 This carefully curated collection of essays charts interactions between majority languages including English French German Italian and Japanese and minority dialects or languages pushed to the margins including Arabic Bengali Esperanto Neapolitan and Welsh through a series of case studies of leading modern and contemporary cultural producers The contributors who work and study across the globe extend critical understanding of literary multilingualism to the subjects of migration and the exophonic self translation and the aesthetics of interlinguistic bricolage language death and language perseveration and power in linguistic hierarchies in post colonial contexts Their subjects include the authors Julia Alvarez Elena Ferrante Jonathan Franzen Am lie Nothomb Ali Smith Yoko Tawada and Dylan Thomas the film maker Ulrike Ottinger and the anonymous performers of Griko The volume will be of interest to students of creative writing literature translation and sociolinguistics Becoming of the Body Amaleena Damle, 2014-04-09 No detailed description available for The Becoming of the Body Challenging the Boundaries Isil Bas, Donald C. Freeman, 2007 Challenging the Boundaries seeks to transcend the limits of literary genres and national cultures exploring both old and new frontiers in language and literature from an interdisciplinary multifaceted and challenging perspective Selected from the pathbreaking Istanbul conference of the Poetics and Linguistics Association these papers treat topics ranging from contemporary neurobiology s insights into the sources of poetic creativity to the cultural theories of Michel Foucault and H l ne Cixous and their literary consequences from the films of the American director David Lynch to those of the Senegalese artist Djibril Diop Mamb ty from the work of the Turkish novelist Orhan Pamuk to James Joyce s Ulysses and the stories of Virginia Woolf This volume will be of particular interest to readers who might wish to become acquainted with the work of able young scholars from an exceptionally wide array of academic cultures and theoretical commitments The authors whose essays appear in Challenging the Boundaries reflect in their approaches and subjects both the breadth and depth of the international academic community PALA Papers is a series of volumes comprising essays selected and edited from presentations at the annual conferences of the Poetics and Linguistics Association an international body of scholars whose work focuses on the interdisciplinary nexus of linguistics discourse theory and literary analysis criticism and theory Each volume will present studies that provide models to scholars throughout the world for conducting their own research in this multidisciplinary paradigm on such topics as among many others close linguistic analysis of canonical literary works corpus based studies of literary narrative and the linguistic basis of contemporary social and cultural theory Aimer et mourir Eilene Hoft-March, Judith Holland Sarnecki, 2009-01-23 Aimer et Mourir offers a wide ranging selection of essays that collectively address how from the Middle Ages to the present the notions of love and death get inextricably associated with the narratives that are women s lives Some of the essays tackle male writers representations that link women and in particular women s sexuality with death resulting in the figures of the femme fatale the woman in parturition and the desiring vampire A number of essays reiterate that women s hyper sexualized bodies have been used as a social construct and a psychological screen upon which to project a fear of death The challenges to this pat reduction of woman's domain come from the mostly women writers represented here and they span from Marguerite de Navarre to Am lie Nothomb These women writers rework the old formulae giving us instead death defying memories of love love regenerative of language as of bodies love forcing the frontiers of death or love creatively redefined within the parameters of death Nor are these new narratives imagined as belonging to women alone but rather as attesting to a richer more varied and greatly sensitized human experience Re-imagining Japan after Fukushima Tamaki Mihic, 2020-03-11 The 2011 T hoku earthquake tsunami and Fukushima nuclear disaster collectively referred to as 3 11 the date of the earthquake had a lasting impact on Japan's identity and global image. In its immediate aftermath mainstream media presented the country as a disciplined resilient and composed nation united in the face of a natural disaster However 3 11 also drew worldwide attention to the negative aspects of Japanese government and society thought to have caused the unresolved situation at Fukushima Spurred by heightened emotions following the triple disaster the Japanese became increasingly polarised between these two views of how to represent themselves How did literature and popular culture respond to this dilemma Re imagining Japan after Fukushima attempts to answer that question by analysing how Japan was portrayed in post 3 11 fiction Texts are selected from the Japanese English and French languages and the portrayals are also compared with those from non fiction discourse This book argues that cultural responses to 3 11 had a significant role to play in re imagining Japan after Fukushima Francophone Women Writers Eric Touya de Marenne, 2024-03-26 This anthology seeks to introduce women writers in the global Francophone world by investigating the place of feminist postcolonial and cross cultural theories in interpreting women francophone literature The book also allows the reader to examine the extent to which women writers reflect or negate the conventional archetypes of Francophone literature how they reinvent the political cultural and critical discourse of their time and place and create their own identity from objectification to subjectivity The ambition of this anthology is to explore these themes at a time when globalization is redefining the concepts of language identity space and history and transforming the rapport of each individual to the other While most research on the subject focus on specific countries or regions this volume offers a new critical introduction to Francophone women authors from a broad geographical range in North and West Africa the Near East the Pacific North America the Caribbean Islands and Europe Significantly this study assembles a broad and representative collection of texts written by women authors that will generate a fruitful and critical reflection among students and scholars The selected texts present critical issues that students and readers at large need to explore to further their knowledge of francophone literature and culture The Modernist

Traveler Kimberley J. Healey,2003-01-01 The Modernist Traveler considers figures whose writing about travel rebelled against a literary tradition of exoticism adventure stories and novelistic travelogues Instead these writers initiated a modernist strain in travel writing and a shift in the literary establishment and the culture at large Kimberley J Healey focuses on those French writers and thinkers who traveled in order to experience a displacement of both the inner self and the physical body while writing against the prevalent tradition of travel literature The modern self modern time colonial spaces and the physical body are Healey's concerns as she reads works by Victor Segalen Paul Morand Blaise Cendrars Henri Michaux Saint John Perse Guillaume Apollinaire Paul Nizan Albert Londres Andre Malraux Val ry Larbaud and Isabelle Eberhardt This book shows how in the field of French literature these texts about travel best capture the modernist experience of being alone in a world of new technologies cultural diversity and anxiety about the self
