A RARE MACHINES BOOK

My Mother's Beau Julian Bonser, 2009

Arabesques Anton Shammas, 2023-01-17 A luminous inventive and deeply personal exploration of living in the liminal space between Jewish and Arab ancient and modern by a gifted Palestinian writer Chosen by The New York Times as one of the best books of 1988 Arabesques is a luminous novel that engages with history and politics not as propaganda but as literature That engagement begins with the language in which the book is written Anton Shammas from a Palestinian Christian family and raised in Israel wrote in Hebrew as no Arab novelist had before The choice was provocative to both Arab and Jewish readers Arabesques is divided into two sections The Tale and The Teller The Tale tells of several generations of family life in a rural village of the interplay of past and present of how memory intersects with history in a part of the world where different people have both lived together and struggled against each other for centuries The Teller is about the writer's voyage out of that world to Paris and the United States as he comes into his vocation as a writer and raises questions about the authority of the storyteller and the nature of the self Shammas's tour de force is both a personal and a political narrative a reinvention of the novel as a way of envisioning and responding to historical and cultural legacies and conflicts Familiar and Foreign Manijeh Mannani, Veronica Thompson, 2015-09-30 the current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906-11 and the anti-imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979 Despite the Iranian government's determined pursuance of anti-Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity In Familiar and Foreign Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry novels memoir and films These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran Through the examination of works by among others the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad the expatriate author Goli Taraghi the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi author of Persepolis this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion patriarchy and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran's long and revolutionary history Blaze of glory, 1911 Tabuatã part 2 - Planet Earth Washington Luis Lanfredi, 2022-11-03 This story takes place five years after Isabela and her friends' first adventure in Tabuat Tabuat is a world of fiction fantasy and a lot of adventure where every child wants or already wanted to go one day Isabela and her friends helped to save Tabuatan from the evil goblin lord Chatum and now in this book you will once again be heroes you will save not only Tabuatan but also the entire planet Earth Come join this adventure with lots of joy and imagination The Certainty of a Future Life in Mars Louis Pope Gratacap, 1903 Trieste Daša Drndić, 2014 An old Italian woman seeks a reunion with her son fathered by an SS officer and taken away by German authorities sixty two years ago while she remembers and discusses the atrocities committed in Northern Italy during World War II

Blue Sky Dream David Beers, 2012-05-02 In Blue Sky Dream A Memoir of America's Fall from Grace award winner David Beers offers a powerful personal vision of the rise and fall of the American middle class Here is a dazzling literary chronicle of a family a people and a nation the blue sky tribe of ever optimistic middle class Americans who believed in something called the American Dream then woke up one day to discover it was gone Blue Sky Dream is a book incredibly rich in ideas in ways of seeing the recent past with stunning clarity David Beers explores issues that define our times downsizing middle class anxiety the profound anger with government the sense that something has gone awry with the United States with such skill personal immediacy and compassion that readers will see their own histories in his prose Blue Sky Dream can rightly be called a communal memoir because in telling his family's tale growing tensions and disillusionment in their suburban paradise a son rejecting his parents values one sudden and inexplicable moment of violence Beers tells the story of his people the blue sky tribe who imagined ourselves to be living the inevitable future and are very surprised today to discover we were but a strange and aberrant moment that is now receding into history

The Devil is a Black Dog Sandor Jaszberenyi, 2015-02-24 In the nineteen extraordinary stories that comprise The Devil Is a Black Dog and Other Stories writer and photojournalist Sandor Jaszberenyi shows us the human side of war and revolution in the contemporary Middle East and Africa and of the social upheaval that has held Eastern Europe in its grip since the fall of communism Characters contemplate the meaning of home love despair family and friendship against the backdrop of brutality From Cairo to the Gaza Strip from Benghazi to Budapest religious men have their faith challenged and people under the duress of war or traumatic personal memories deal with the feelings that emerge Often they seem to suppress these feelings but no not quite Set in countries the author has reported from or lived in these stories are all told from different perspectives but always with the individual at the center the mother the soldier the martyr the religious man the journalist and so on They form a kaleidoscope of miniworlds of moments of decisions that together put a face an emotion a thought behind humans who confront war and conflict Although they are fiction they could have all happened exactly as they are told Each story leaves a powerful visual image an unforgettable image you conjure up again and again Jaszberenyi is able to do all this so convincingly in part because he himself is not a helicopter journalist but rather lives in a residential Cairo neighborhood He is moreover from a corner of Eastern Europe where cynicism almost equates with survival and yet his writing evinces not only wry humor but great sensitivity and a profound sense of beauty He speaks Arabic in addition to English and his native Hungarian and immerses himself in the society he reports on But in doing so he still remains a reporter and as such the stories are approached with the clinical observant eye of an outsider Whether addressing the contradictions of international humanitarian work or the moral dilemmas faced by those who seek to improve the health and lives of women and girls he does so in a singularly provocative and yet intelligent manner

A Full Back Slower Than Your Average Prop Ian
