Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Chris Kanyane Kanyane,2010-01-06 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didnt want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juice and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger,Thera Rasing,2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes Frontline ,1983

Witness to Power Mathews Phosa, 2024-11-03 Mathews Phosa has been an eyewitness to the dramatic shifts of political power in South Africa He was involved in the Black Consciousness Movement the UDF and the ANC before fleeing into exile in 1985 and becoming an uMkhonto weSizwe commander in Mozambique A lawyer by training he was one of the first ANC members to return to South Africa to prepare the way for negotiations He was premier of Mpumalanga during the presidency of Nelson Mandela with whom he had a strong relationship Under Thabo Mbeki whom he had known in exile Phosa was pushed to the sidelines with false accusations that he was involved in a plot to overthrow the president Phosa had served under Jacob Zuma as an MK field commander in Mozambique and he became treasurer general of the ANC when Zuma became its president at Polokwane But Phosa later became a vocal critic of Zuma and they didn't speak for years until the night before Zuma's resignation Phosa and Cyril Ramaphosa had studied law together at the University of the North in the 1970s and fifty years later Phosa played a key role in advising him over the Phala Phala report that threatened to end his presidency Witness to Power is a gripping story of underground activities military operations negotiations political conflict and intrigue It provides fascinating new insights into the ruling party and its leaders by an ANC elder who worked with them all One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress ANC of South Africa the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent celebrated its one hundredth anniversary This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC's historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms Collectively the book chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994 By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century long history One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics will find this volume informative This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC Debating Liberation Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg from 20-23 September 2011
