

My Mom...My Hero

When I was twelve, my father died. I had just entered high school and was making that adjustment. It was a challenging time for my mother, who had to provide everything for the next 7 years while I went through school and a pre-university course.

We had some lean years, but I never went to bed without eating and if I lacked anything, I never noticed. By example, she taught me to work hard and be resilient.

It's now 12 years since she passed, but I'll forever be grateful for the many sacrifices she made for me. One regret I have is that she died 2 months after my son was born. Had she lived until now, I'm sure she'd be his hero too.
