I, Athira... S. Athira, Some features of this book: Athira provides a personal account revealing how radical religious groups manipulate individuals into converting, initially fostering a sense of aversion to their own culture and religion, then to their society, country, family, and eventually their own identity. This book offers guidance on how to rehabilitate and help those who have lost their ability to think critically and logically after being influenced by extremist ideologies through the process of Spiritual Counselling. This book is for all religious converts and those who are on the verge of converting. A patient reading of this book will surely make you rethink your decision to convert.

Sonic Encounters Diana Chester, 2021-11-22 Sonic Encounters The Islamic Call to Prayer recounts the author's experience gathering field recordings of the Islamic Call to Prayer. It touches on key questions and problems faced along the way as well as discussing technologies and methods for recording what it means to develop art from ethnographic research and the ethics and considerations of working with Islamic communities around the globe. The book uses a sound studies framework to explore artistic research methods and practices in ethnography as they relate to religious recitation.

Stolen Child Marie-Claire Vidja, Olivier Goujon, 2023-07-04 My name is Marie Claire. I have had nightmares every night from the time I was 11 when I was kidnapped from the clutches of a French family who tortured her into the grips of an Algerian family who kidnapped and confined her. Marie Claire went through hell before making a spectacular escape and reaching France. There are lives whose reality is hard to imagine. Marie Claire's life is one of those. An unwanted child born in France, beaten, involved in drug trafficking, she was abandoned, temporarily placed in the care of Social Services, before being returned to her parents, and then she was kidnapped by her stepfather and then by her father's family that included a radicalized Islamic tutor. She went through hell for ten years before escaping and starting on a path to recovery in which suffering and hardships kept getting worse but which eventually led her to the hallowed halls of a French university from where she continues to fight for the hundreds of children kidnapped by a parent, children who every year are victims of their parents' crimes and of institutional abandonment. She also uses her personal experience to look at mixed marriages, parental authority, parental responsibility. She points out with intelligence and accuracy the blind spots in the law, the cowardice of institutions and the indifference of public opinion in the face of crimes whose victims are first and foremost thousands of children. The life of Marie Claire is not a novel. Marie Claire Vidja is a teacher, researcher, and a doctor in human and social sciences. She has written Hirak l'art de la révolution du sourire published by Nombre7. Olivier Goujon is a photojournalist, scriptwriter, and author of several books including Femmes, histoire d'une trahison, Ces cons de journalistes, and Pitcairn les derniers réfugiés du Bounty vont disparaître published by Max Milo.

touches my heart so deeply that it resonates with my every emotion To say that I fell in love with the story and its characters from the very beginning would not come close to accurately depicting the intensity of my admiration for it It is my strong belief that Hani Selim has impressively found a way to create a story encompassing so many important topics affecting the world today He has accomplished this in a selfless effort to magnify humanity I am not an Arab I am not a Muslim and I am not a Homosexual I am a mother As a mother it pains me to think of all the hatred that some children have to face because of such classifications To be a supporter of this book and its continued production would be a step in the right direction on the path to a better world I know that whoever reads this novel will walk away with an increased knowledge of what it feels like to be a person placed in such categories They will be exposed to the struggles one must face in an effort to secure basic freedoms deserved by all human beings This novel will pull at your heart strings and dig deep within your soul to distinguish a new sense of empathy It really is a story that has something for everyone but in the end it all comes down to love I predict a definite best seller
