Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1948 The Leaves Are Falling Lucy Beckett, 2014-03-31 An octogenarian bookseller living alone in London has found a description of his father as a young doctor in 1920s Breslau in a story about Weimar Germany Perhaps his own story might be worth telling In 1945 as a sixteen year old boy rescued from the ruins of Europe he arrives at a Yorkshire farmhouse Working on the farm for two years in the strange atmosphere of rural England immediately after World War II he learns to deal with his memories of what happened to him and to his family and to trust up to a point those around him in a foreign country London in 1947 is stranger still But the boy is lucky as he has been since 1941 when marksmen tried to shoot him into a pit full of corpses in a Lithuanian forest The year before different executioners in a different forest further east had shot and killed his father Those who faced the worst atrocities of World War II which were inflicted on people in the bloodlands of eastern Poland and western Russia knew that there was little to choose between the two mighty machines Nazi and Soviet How was it possible for the individual to survive the crushing wheels of ideology terror and mass murder with his integrity intact The Leaves Are Falling a sequel to A Postcard from the Volcano but a stand alone story explores this question Poland and the Holocaust in the Polish-American Press, 1926-1945 Magdalena Kubow, 2020-07-23 Contrary to the common notion that news regarding the unfolding Holocaust was unavailable or unreliable news from Europe was often communicated to North American Poles through the Polish language press This work engages with the origins debate and demonstrates that the Polish language press covered seminal issues during the interwar years the war and the Holocaust extensively on their front and main story pages and were extremely responsive professional and vocal in their journalism From Polish Jewish relations to the cause of the Second World War and subsequently the development of genocide related policy North American Poles had a different perspective from mainstream society on the causes and effects of what was happening New research for this book examines attitudes toward Jews prior to and during the Holocaust and how information on such attitudes was disseminated It utilizes selected Polish newspapers of the period 1926 1945 predominantly the Republika Gornik as well as survivor testimony Anti-Jewish Violence in Poland, 1914-1920 William W. Hagen, 2018-04-19 Widespread anti Jewish pogroms accompanied the rebirth of Polish statehood out of World War I and Polish Soviet War William W Hagen offers the pogroms first scholarly account revealing how they served as brutal stagings by ordinary people of scenarios dramatizing popular anti Jewish fears and resentments While scholarship on modern anti Semitism has stressed its ideological inspiration print anti Semitism this study shows that anti Jewish violence by perpetrators among civilians and soldiers expressed magic infused anxieties and longings for redemption from present threats and suffering folk anti Semitism Illustrated with contemporary photographs and constructed from extensive newly discovered archival sources from three continents this is an innovative work in east European history Using extensive first person testimonies it reveals gaps but also correspondences between popular attitudes and those of the political elite The pogroms raged against the conscious will of new Poland s governors whilst Christians high and low sometimes sought even successfully to block them Annual Report American Jewish Committee,1918 Proceedings of Annual Meeting American Jewish Committee,1920 Stalin's Secret Pogrom Joshua Rubenstein,Vladimir Pavlovich Naumov,2001-01-01 In 1952 15 Soviet Jews were secretly tried and convicted many executions followed in the basement of Moscow s Lubyanka prison This book presents an abridged version of the transcript of the trial revealing the Kremlin s machinery of destruction The Reform Advocate ,1920 Story of the Jew Sheldon Cohen,2017-12-18 Early civilizations were extremely cruel Many wars were fought for territory and control The concept of religion surfaced in order to establish ethical and moral standards that would bring peace order and civility to a violent world The first pioneers in this effort were Abram and Sarai who attempted to establish the Jewish religion This book describes the four thousand year old struggle to achieve this goal a work in progress to this day as Judaism still strives and as other religions have surfaced over time Will civilization ever reach religions ultimate goal of bringing stable peace order and civility to a cruel world The National Jewish Monthly ,1929
