An Alabama Songbook Byron Arnold, 2004-08-12 A lavish presentation of 208 folksongs collected throughout Alabama in the 1940s. Alabama is a state rich in folksong tradition from old English ballads sung along the Tennessee River to children's game songs played in Mobile from the rhythmic work songs of the railroad gandy dancers of Gadsden to the spirituals of the Black Belt. The musical heritage of blacks and whites, rich and poor, hill folk and cotton farmers, these songs endure as a living part of the state's varied past. In the mid 1940s Byron Arnold, an eager young music professor from The University of Alabama, set out to find and record as many of these songs as he could and was rewarded by unstinting cooperation from many informants. Mrs. Julia Greer Marechal of Mobile, for example, was 90 years old, blind, and a semi-invalid, but she sang for Arnold for three hours, allowing the recording of 33 songs and exhausting Arnold and his technician. Helped by such living repositories as Mrs. Marechal, the Arnold collection grew to well over 500 songs, augmented by field notes and remarkable biographical information on the singers. An Alabama Songbook is the result of Arnold's efforts and those of his informants across the state and has been shaped by Robert W. Hall Jr. into a narrative enriched by more than 200 significant songs: lullabies, Civil War anthems, African American gospel and secular songs, fiddle tunes, temperance songs, love ballads, play party rhymes, and work songs. In the tradition of Alan Lomax's The Folk Songs of North America and Vance Randolph's Ozark Folksongs, this volume will appeal to general audiences, folklorists, ethnomusicologists, preservationists, traditional musicians, and historians.

A Stuttering Revolution Paul Gaskin, 2023-11-27 Feel like your stutter dominates every waking second of your life? You're not alone. An estimated 70 million adults worldwide have a stutter. Many believe their lives will be significantly limited by the way they speak, but it doesn't have to be that way. Aged 17, Paul stopped trying to fix his stutter and over a long and successful career has designed a unique five-step road map to help him become so much more than his stutter. It can help you do the same. This is a powerful and practical book that focuses on what you love to do and guides you to create the life you really want and deserve.
