structural information as graphs Graph Drawing David Eppstein, Emden R. Gansner, 2010-03-24 This volume constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th International Symposium on Graph Drawing GD 2009 held in Chicago USA during September 2009 The 31 revised full papers and 4 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected out of 79 submissions Furthermore 10 posters were accepted in a separate submission process The Psychology of Learning and Motivation , 2013-01-21 The Psychology of Learning and Motivation series publishes empirical and theoretical contributions in cognitive and experimental psychology ranging from classical and instrumental conditioning to complex learning and problem solving Volume 58 of the highly regarded Psychology of Learning and Motivation series An essential reference for researchers and academics in cognitive science Relevant to both applied concerns and basic research Drawing Music, Marking Time David Griffin, 2025-01-23 Marking down the complexities of musical pieces on paper allows them to become portable shareable and eminently teachable but how are the simple geometries of a music notation unfolded into space and time A music notation is an almost impossibly complicated bit of drawing Calling it a map or a diagram does not quite do the trick Its tracery supplies mechanisms for planning composition analysis annotation and performance of music But how is it that we read that simple strategic two dimensional geometry and make such complex four dimensional performances In this book David Griffin guides readers to a comprehensive understanding of the structural properties of music notations with a particular focus on the standard Western staff notation system looking at composers such as Bach John Cage Earle Brown and Stockhausen Developed over a thousand years ago the staff notation is a geometrical drawing method using dots and lines on a horizontal timeline for explaining the structure of a musical piece The system behaves a bit like a picture but it is also like a diagram and a bit like writing in its structure In the hands of an experienced user the notation s complex of marks and phatic elements allows us to leave behind the mere denotation of diagrams or pictures to become a connotative drawing system This book will attempt to de code music drawings untangling their strange knots of graphic and linguistic elements Using a series of visual examples Griffin presents background information on how the staff notation developed as an inter linguistic inscription a drawing that slips through the mere denotation of pictorial or diagrammatic graphics to become a connotative system with which we may craft subtle and powerful elements of musical poetry A Global History of Architecture Francis D. K. Ching, Mark M. Jarzombek, Vikramaditya Prakash, 2010-09-09 From ancient Chinese civilization to the postmodern world Organized along a global timeline A Global History of Architecture presents an innovative approach to the study of architectural history Spanning from 3 500 B C E to the present this unique guide is written by an all star team of architectural experts in their fields who emphasize the connections contrasts and influences of architectural movements throughout history The architectural history of the world comes to life through a unified framework for interpreting and understanding architecture supplemented by rich drawings from the renowned Frank Ching as well as brilliant photographs Architecture and art history enthusiasts will find A Global History of Architecture perpetually at their fingertips The
