Medical School from High School A. Azam,A.M. Ilyas MD,2016-12-21 This book is the most complete source on the nations medical school early admission programs These programs allow informed and motivated students to apply directly to medical school while applying to colleges all directly from high school These programs are hidden gems that come in varying shapes and sizes ranging from six to eight years designed to attract bright students interested in becoming a physician Their somewhat ambiguous nature is brought to light in detail Their various titles including BA MD or BS MD programs fast track medical programs and medical scholar programs all lend to the ambiguity which is explained and categorized in a uniform format This book provides information on all aspects of the application process including a Q A session explaining frequently asked questions the application process SAT and GPA requirements and interview advice Your career choice is one of the most important decisions you can make A career in medicine is extremely competitive but also highly intellectually professionally and personally satisfying If seriously committed to a career in medicine learn how you can take advantage of these unique programs and make the right decision early The New Canadian Pentecostals Adam Stewart,2015-09-30 The New Canadian Pentecostals takes readers into the everyday religious lives of the members of three Pentecostal congregations located in the Region of Waterloo Ontario Canada Using the rich qualitative and quantitative data gathered through participant observation personal interviews and surveys conducted within these congregations Adam Stewart provides the first book length study focusing on the specific characteristics of Canadian Pentecostal identity belief and practice Stewart asserts that Pentecostalism remains an important tradition in the Canadian religious landscape contrary to the assumptions of many Canadian sociologists and scholars of religion Recent decreases in Canadian Pentecostal affiliation recorded by Statistics Canada are not the result of Pentecostals abandoning their congregations rather they are indicative of a radical transformation from traditionally Pentecostal to generically evangelical modes of religious identity belief and practice that are changing the ways that Pentecostals understand and explain their religious identities The case study presented in this book suggests that a new breed of Canadian Pentecostals are emerging for whom traditional definitions and expressions of Pentecostalism are much less important than religious autonomy and individualism The New York Times

Book Review ,1970 Black Women's Formal and Informal Ways of Leadership: Actualizing the Vision of a More Equitable Workplace Bowser, Audrey D.,Davis, Kimberley M.,Johnson-Leslie, Natalie A.,2023-08-29 Black women s marginalized experience has often superseded their impact at their respective workplaces Usually Black women s ways of knowing and leadership are composed of practices that do not fit perfectly in our heterogenous ideal of leadership It is crucial to share Black women s ways of knowing and understand how Black women navigate their roles Black Women s Formal and Informal Ways of Leadership discusses how Black women s pedagogies shape their navigation through life through formal and informal leadership roles It empowers the various voices of Black women and challenges the idea of who we look at as leaders Covering topics such as perception bias emotional intelligence and Black women stereotypes this premier reference source is a dynamic resource for business leaders and managers entrepreneurs human resource managers librarians faculty and administrators of education students of higher education government officials researchers and academicians J. H. Garrison and Disciples of Christ William E. Tucker,2015-04-28 The years between the Civil War and 1930 constitute the most critical period in the history of Disciples of Christ yet little attempt has been made to understand that era s most prominent leaders one of whom was J H Garrison For more than sixty years he edited and contributed to The Christian Evangelist the journal that became the weekly periodical of the Disciples An editor with vast influence he played a significant and sometimes decisive role in the life of his communion This book is more than the story of one man it is a critical study of the turbulent and transitional era in Disciple history spanned by his editorial career The value of this book is enhanced by the extensive use that is made of J H Garrison s letters and diaries This rich collection of source material has only recently been made available for historical research Food Justice Activism and Pedagogies Eileen E. Schell,Pritisha Shrestha,Dianna Winslow,2023-02-13 Food Justice Activism and Pedagogies Literacies and Rhetorics for Transforming Food Systems in Local and Transnational Contexts brings together national and transnational scholars from rhetoric composition writing studies and other interdisciplinary fields to address food as a topic of inquiry and a matter of social and environmental justice The contributors in this edited collection demonstrate that analyzing the literacies rhetorics and pedagogies needed to transform food systems is vital to creating sustainable food systems The contributors advocate that food learning be taught and engaged in at all levels of schooling and in society including college courses and community settings Scholars of rhetoric literacy studies interdisciplinary food studies and sociology will find this book of particular interest Bulletin ,1914 Bulletin United States.
