The ongoing synodal process of the Catholic Church engages a new vision of being church within human history and society At the European synod of bishops in 1999 Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini called for a new ecumenical council Too wise to use this term explicitly he said that he hoped for an experience of universal confrontation between bishops at the dawning of the new century Unresolved questions demanded sound answers a lack of ordained ministers the role of women in the church the participation of the laity new challenges regarding sexuality and marriage ecumenism and more Since then even more questions have been raised regarding the sexual abuse crisis the experience of widespread discouragement and polarization within the church In A Council by Another Name world renowned French theologian Christoph Theobald explains why synodality is a constitutive dimension of the church and urges readers especially ecclesial leaders to trust the synodal process and to engage in it in their rightful place Based on conversion that is both personal and institutional Theobald cites Pope Francis's call for cooperation and creativity as an essential element for confronting the current difficulties effectively approaching the future peacefully and welcoming a new and decisive vision of the church within human history and society This is a revised and expanded edition of the second French edition
