- Directions: Read each item carefully and select the response that best describes the item. Record the appropriate response number (1-4) next to each item using a pencil or ballpoint pen.
1. The original author and publisher/producer is the only one who can create your initial response to their copyright concerns.
2. Copyright law does not require an individual to use the Internet or any of the Internet. It only requires you share or distribute from the Internet or within the Internet.
3. Make this your intention to use a student's work, such as a video, only for their learning in the classroom or for their group of friends.
4. Please note that in your effort to share or to create new or to "re-use" information on the Internet, you should always give credit to the original source of the information (e.g., author, publisher, or creator).
