When Migrants Fail to Stay Ruth Balint,Joy Damousi,Sheila

Fitzpatrick,2023-09-07 The aftermath of the Second World War marked a radical new moment in the history of migration For the millions of refugees stranded in Europe China and Africa it offered the possibility of mobility to the new world of the West for countries like Australia that accepted them it marked the beginning of a radical reimagining of its identity as an immigrant nation For the next few decades Australia was transformed by waves of migrants and refugees However two of the five million who came between 1947 and 1985 later left When Migrants Fail to Stay examines why this happened This innovative collection of essays explores a distinctive form of departure and its importance in shaping and defining the reordering of societies after World War II Esteemed historians Ruth Balint Joy Damousi and Sheila Fitzpatrick lead a cast of emerging and established scholars to probe this overlooked phenomenon In doing so this book enhances our understanding of the migration and its history Tax, Public Finance, and the Rule of Law Dominic de Cogan,Alexis Brassey,May

Hen,2025-02-20 This book offers a key point of reference for reflective and thoughtful examinations of the rule of law in tax and related disciplines It features a stellar cast of established and early career researchers from a variety of jurisdictions who have entered into conversations about the nature of the rule of law its relevance to questions about tax welfare distribution and public spending and the challenges involved in applying legal standards in these fields There is a particular focus on the interaction between the rule of law and the rapidly emerging world of cross border tax avoidance reforms influenced by the OECD s Base Erosion and Profits Shifting project and the evolution of EU level governance over direct as well as indirect taxes The book is accessible to those new to taxation and public finance as well as to experts and to lawyers and non lawyers alike Women's Labour and the History of the Book in Early Modern England Valerie Wayne,2020-05-14 This collection reveals the valuable work that women achieved in publishing printing writing and reading early modern English books from those who worked in the book trade to those who composed selected collected and annotated books Women gathered rags for paper production invested in books and oversaw the presses that printed them Their writing and reading had an impact on their contemporaries and the developing literary canon A focus on women s work enables these essays to recognize the various forms of labour textual and social as well as material and commercial that women of different social classes engaged in Those considered include the very poor the middling sort who were active in the book trade and the elite women authors and readers who participated in literary communities Taken together these essays convey the impressive work that women accomplished and their frequent collaborations with others in the making marking and marketing of early modern English books Topology of Disordered Networks and their Applications Punit Boolchand,Matthieu Micoulaut,2020-09-03 This
