Father And Glorious Descendant:

Father and Glorious Descendant Pardee Lowe, 1943 Claiming America K. Wong, 2011-02-07 A collection of essays that recovers the lives and experiences of individuals who staked their claim to Chinese American identity The Cambridge Companion to Asian American Literature Crystal Parikh, Daniel Y. Kim, 2015-08-20 The Cambridge Companion to Asian American Literature offers an engaging survey of Asian American literature from the nineteenth century to the present day Since the 1980s Asian American literary studies has developed into a substantial and vibrant field within English and American Studies This Companion explores the variety of historical periods literary genres and cultural movements affecting the development of Asian American literature Written by a host of leading scholars in the field this book provides insight into the representative movements regional settings archival resources and critical reception that define Asian American literature Covering subjects from immigrant narratives and internment literature to contemporary race studies and the problem of translation this Companion provides insight into the myriad traditions that have shaped the Asian American literary landscape Chinese American Transnationalism Sucheng Chan, 2006 Chinese American Transnationalism considers the many ways in which Chinese living in the United States during the exclusion era maintained ties with China through a constant interchange of people and economic resources as well as political and cultural ideas This book continues the exploration of the exclusion era begun in two previous volumes Entry Denied which examines the strategies that Chinese Americans used to protest undermine and circumvent the exclusion laws and Claiming America which traces the development of Chinese American ethnic identities Taken together the three volumes underscore the complexities of the Chinese immigrant experience and the ways in which its contexts changed over the sixty one year period The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience Maxine Hong Kingston's The Woman Warrior Sau-ling Cynthia Wong, 1999 With the continued expansion of the literary canon multicultural works of modern literary fiction and autobiography have assumed an increasing importance for students and scholars of American literature This exciting new series assembles key documents and criticism concerning these works that have so recently become central components of the American literature curriculum Each casebook will reprint documents relating to the work's historical context and reception present the best in critical essays and when possible feature an interview of the author The series will provide for the first time an accessible forum in which readers can come to a fuller understanding of these contemporary masterpieces and the unique aspects of American ethnic racial or cultural experience that they so ably portray This case book presents a thought provoking overview of critical debates surrounding The Woman Warrior perhaps the best known Asian American literary work The essays deal with such issues as the reception by various interpretive communities canon formation cultural authenticity fictionality in autobiography and feminist and poststructuralist subjectivity The eight essays are supplemented an interview with the author and a bibliography

Economic Citizens Christine So, 2009-08-15 Economic Citizens argues that Asians have been traditionally imagined as the threat of capitalism gone awry and demonstrates that the logic of economic exchange has been an overlooked but critical means for Asian Americans to negotiate political and cultural equivalence Multicultural Autobiography James Robert Payne, 1992 A Companion to the Modern American Novel, 1900 - 1950 John T. Matthews, 2013-03-25 This cutting edge Companion is a comprehensive resource for the study of the modern American novel Published at a time when literary modernism is being thoroughly reassessed it reflects current investigations into the origins and character of the movement as a whole Brings together 28 original essays from leading scholars Allows readers to orient individual works and authors in their principal cultural and social contexts Contributes to efforts to recover minority voices such as those of African American novelists and popular subgenres such as detective fiction Directs students to major relevant scholarship for further inquiry Suggests the many ways that modern American and fiction carry new meanings in the twenty first century Cities of Others Xiaojing Zhou, 2014-12-01 Asian American literature abounds with complex depictions of American cities as spaces that reinforce racial segregation and prevent interactions across boundaries of race culture class and gender However in Cities of Others Xiaojing Zhou uncovers a much different narrative providing the most comprehensive examination to date of how Asian American writers both celebrated and overlooked depict urban settings Zhou goes beyond examining popular portrayals of Chinatowns by paying equal attention to life in other parts of the city Her innovative and wide ranging approach sheds new light on the works of Chinese Filipino Indian Japanese Korean and Vietnamese American writers who bear witness to a variety of urban experiences and reimagine the American city as other than a segregated nation space Drawing on critical theories on space from urban geography ecocriticism and postcolonial studies Zhou shows how spatial organization shapes identity in the works of Sui Sin Far, Bienvenido Santos, Meena Alexander, Frank Chin, Chang-rae Lee, Karen Tei Yamashita and others. She also shows how the everyday practices of Asian American communities challenge racial segregation, reshape urban spaces and redefine the identity of the American city. From a reimagining of the nineteenth-century flâneur figure in an Asian American context to providing a framework that allows readers to see ethnic enclaves and American cities as mutually constitutive and transformative, Zhou gives us a provocative new way to understand some of the most important works of Asian American literature.
