

Federalist Paper #78 – Summary

Paragraph 1:	After analyzing the issues of the Articles of Confederation, it becomes clear that having a national judiciary is necessary. Now, the only question that remains is about how the judiciary would be structured and what powers it would have.

Paragraph 5:	According to the Constitution, federal judges are allowed to hold their office during good behavior, which is a model the states should follow. These lifetime terms on good behavior allow an unbiased and reliable implementation of laws and prevents any abuse of power.
Paragraph 6:	The judiciary is the least powerful of the branches of government; it cannot make anyone do anything, it can only pass judgments and depend on the other branches to support and endorse their judgments.
Paragraph 7:	Because the judiciary is so weak, the people should not fear it; they should instead fear not having a judiciary, because it is an indispensable part of the constitution that balances the power of the other branches and serves public justice and public security.
Paragraph 8:	Having a separate court of justice is essential in a limited Constitution because it enforces the limits that Congress has when making laws. It can
