Fees Structure For First Year Students Moi University 2015:

21st Century Music Education: Informal Learning and Non-Formal Teaching Ruth Wright, 2016 Policy Styles and Policy-Making Michael Howlett, Jale Tosun, 2018-10-26 Richardson et al s respected and seminal Policy Styles in Western Europe 1982 shed valuable light on how countries tend to establish long term and distinctive ways to make policies that transcend short term imperatives and issues This follow up volume updates those arguments and significantly expands the coverage consisting of 16 carefully selected country level case studies from around the world Furthermore it includes different types of political regimes and developmental levels to test more widely the robustness of the patterns and variables highlighted in the original book The case studies covering countries from the United States Canada Germany and the UK to Russia Togo and Vietnam follow a uniform structure combining theoretical considerations and the presentation of empirical material to reveal how the distinct cultural and institutional features of modern states continue to have implications for the making and implementation of public policy decisions within them The book is essential reading for students and scholars of public policy public administration comparative politics and development studies New Pathways to Job Creation and Development in Africa Haroon Bhorat, Brahim Coulibaly, Richard Newfarmer, John Page, 2025-05-06 Creating productive jobs for growing a labor force is both one of the world s greatest challenges as well as one of its greatest economic opportunities and one of the most consequential global megatrends Nowhere is the job creation challenge more acute than for young people in Africa In response to this challenge and to also address Africa s structural economic transformation the Africa Growth Initiative at Brookings has undertaken research on the prospects for large scale job creation through the development of industries without smokestacks including tourism agro processing horticulture and services that has revealed a promising path forward This book is the first to document the potential for non traditional industries to address the formal sector job creation that is critical for Africa to simultaneously harness its demographic dividend and achieve structural transformation In the face of premature deindustrialization many economists have voiced pessimism about Africa s ability to replicate past economic development models The book also documents the potential of an alternative economic development model for Africa based on industries without smokestacks Finally the book suggests practical policy solutions to realize the potential of these industries Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide Corruption Scandals and their Global Impacts Omar E. Hawthorne, Stephen Magu, 2018-05-11 Corruption scandals receive significant press coverage and scrutiny from practitioners of global governance and bilateral and multilateral donors Across the globe the annual publication of TI's CPI and World Bank's Worldwide Governance Indicators elicits spirited denials and accusations of targeting of neo colonialism Poor measures on corruption indices and the ensuing negative publicity can have serious consequences both externally through a freeze or retraction of donor funding and internally through reducing the availability of public funds and harming the credibility of serving governments and institutions Corruption Scandals and their Global Impacts tracks several major corruption scandals across the world in a comparative analysis to assess the full impact of global corruption Over the course of the book the contributors deliberate the exposure and reporting of corruption scandals demonstrate how corruption inhibits development on different levels and across different countries the impact it has on the country in question how citizens and authorities respond to corruption and some local regional and global policy and legislative measures to combat corruption The chapters examine the transnational manifestation of corruption scandals around the world from developed countries and regions such as the United States and the European Union to BRIC countries Brazil and Russia to developing countries such as Belarus Jamaica Kenya and Nigeria In each case chapters highlight the scandal its impact the local regional and global responses and the subsequent global perceptions of the country Concluding with a review of the global impacts of corruption scandals this book provides an important comparative analysis which will be useful to students and scholars of international development and politics as well as to development practitioners donors politicians and policy makers Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia Kerry J.

Kennedy, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2018-05-11 This comprehensive handbook is the ultimate reference work providing authoritative and international overviews of all aspects of schools and schooling in Asia Split into 19 sections it covers curriculum learning and assessment private supplementary tutoring special education gender issues ethnic minority education and LGBTQI students in Asian schools The volume displays the current state of the scholarship for schools and schooling in Asia including emerging controversial and cutting edge contributions using a thematic approach The content offers a broad sweep of the region with a focus on theoretical cultural and political issues as well as identifying educational issues and priorities such as curriculum assessment teacher education school leadership etc all of which impact students and learning in multiple ways The Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia brings together experts in each area to contribute their knowledge providing a multidimensional and rich view of the issues confronting the region's school and education systems Chapters 34 35 36 37 and 38 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Power in Language, Culture, Literature and Education Marta Degani, Werner Delanoy, 2023-04-24 In one of the contributions to this edited volume an interviewee argues that English is power For researchers in the field of English Studies this raises the questions of where the power of English resides and which types and practices of power are implied in the uses of English Linguists scholars of literature and culture and language educators address aspects of these questions in a wide range of contributions The book shows that the power of English can oscillate between empowerment and subjection on the one hand enabling humans to develop manifold capabilities and on the other constraining their scope of action and reflection In this edited volume a case is made for self critical English Studies to be dialogic empowering and power critical in approach

Urban Religious Events Paul Bramadat, Mar Grier, Marian Burchardt, Julia Martinez-Ariño, 2021-04-08 How might we best understand the relationship between the vibrant religious landscapes we see in many cities and contemporary urban social processes Through case studies drawn from around the world contributors explore the ways in which these processes interact in cities This book argues that religious events including rituals processions and festivals are not only choreographies of sacred traditions but they are also creative disruptions that reveal how urban cultural hierarchies are experienced and contested Exposing the power dynamics behind these events this book shows how performative uses of urban space serve to destabilize dominant genealogies and lineages around urban identities just as they lay claims to cultural supremacy or heritage Through exploring the affective disruptions and political controversies caused by religious events the contributors engage theoretical discussions in urban studies the sociology of religion and the ethnography of ritual This book is a significant contribution to understanding emerging patterns in contemporary religion and also for theories related to heritagization eventization and urbanization
