Contemporary popular culture has created a slew of stereotypical roles for girls and women to willingly or not play throughout their lives The Princess the Nymphette the Diva the Single Girl the Bridezilla the Tiger Mother the M I L F the Cougar and more In this book Ames and Burcon investigate the role of cultural texts in gender socialization at specific prescribed stages of a woman's life from girls to the golden girls and how that instruction compounds over time By studying various texts toys magazines blogs tweets television shows Hollywood films novels and self help books they argue that popular culture exists as a type of funhouse mirror constantly distorting the real world conditions that exist for women magnifying the gendered expectations they face Despite the many problematic conflicting messages women receive throughout their lives this book also showcases the ways such messages are resisted allowing women to move past the blurry reality they broadcast and toward hopefully gender equality Gender and Memory in the Global Age Anna
