

La réforme de la laïcité

Introduction :

La laïcité est un terme désignant une conception politique, selon laquelle l'organisation de la société repose sur la séparation de l'Église et de l'État, en particulier dans le domaine de l'enseignement.

Dans cette optique, l'État reconnaît toutes les religions sans en adopter aucune. L'affirmation de la laïcité, qui est généralement le signe d'une sécularisation de la société, ne postule pas la disparition du principe spirituel, mais fait de celui-ci une pratique individuelle, relevant exclusivement de la sphère privée.

Affirmée pour la première fois, en matière politique, avec la Révolution française, la laïcité apparaît comme l'un des fondements du pacte républicain, même si son application a donné lieu à d'importantes controverses. Souvent présenté comme constitutif d'une « exception française », le principe de la laïcité s'oppose naturellement aux modèles politiques à religion d'État, mais également à une tradition anglo-saxonne qui reconnaît dans le cadre de l'État l'existence d'un principe religieux, tout en laissant chaque citoyen adopter la croyance qu'il souhaite (source : Microsoft encarta 2009).

Sur cette image, on voit Marianne entrain d'écrire le mot « Laïcité ».

Marianne incarne la République française et représente par là-même les valeurs républicaines françaises contenues dans la devise : « Liberté, Égalité, Fraternité ». Ces valeurs incluent donc de ce fait, les valeurs de la laïcité.
