cc: British Embassy
Dear Sir or Madam:

We are the applicant XXX's parents and guarantee for her postgraduate study in UK. We can provide her with all the expenses while she is in UK, including the tuition fee, accommodation fee and daily expenditure.

The fund comes from our extended and steady income and former deposits. XXX, her father, works in XXX as XXX Lee Sha, her mother, was an employee in XXX before retirement. Therefore, we will provide all the required fees for our daughter XXX during her stay in UK.

We have steady income, deposit, and we also have our own house. After we provide RMBXXX, we will have no difficulties in our lives. Also, we guarantee that our daughter XXX will have no economic difficulties in UK and will obey the laws and regulations. We are willing to bear all the responsibility if any problems happen.

Your kind consideration of her application is greatly appreciated. Thanks a lot!

We hereby to guarantee!

Yours sincerely,

A Letter to My Dying Mother Robert Peprah-Gyamfi, 2005-03 What a world we live in Whereas in some places residents have to fight hard to resist the temptation not to overfeed themselves at other places people are threatened at best with malnutrition if not starvation In this readable and entertaining book the author who came from Ghana to become a medical doctor in Germany sets out to highlight some of these inequalities as he attempts to compare and contrast the simple and communal lifestyle of a traditional African society with the sophisticated and egocentric one he found in Western society Addressed to his mother in her final battle with death and sent through a fictitious courier it attempts among other things to give her a woman who spent all her life in a typical African countryside an idea of the things she would have seen and experienced on a visit to her son resident in the northern German city of Hannover The book is an invaluable guide for anyone from a developing country who for the first time visits or wishes to settle in the West but it will also be read with keen interest by people in the West wishing to know more of traditional African society

Epicurus in Lycia Pamela Gordon, 1996 Epicurus in Lycia is the first full length study of this eccentric second century C E philosopher from Oenoanda a small city in the mountains of Lycia now Turkey Toward the end of his life Diogenes presented his town with a large limestone inscription that proclaimed the wisdom of the Greek philosopher Epicurus who had lived five centuries earlier This unique text which was discovered in the late nineteenth century has attracted many modern readers Previous work on Diogenes however has concentrated on the reconstruction of Diogenes fragmentary Greek text and on the information he offers on lost teachings of Epicurus Gordon s study offers a new approach to Diogenes and to the history of ancient Epicureanism in general Rather than considering Diogenes simply as an orthodox Epicurean Gordon draws attention to his engagement with the bustling world of second century Roman Asia Minor and demonstrates that his historical setting shaped the way he understood and promoted Epicurean philosophy Gordon shows that Diogenes participated in the fashionable revival of traditional Greek erudition but that he parted company with his contemporaries regarding popular religion and the general notoriety of Epicureanism

Love Letter from Pig Julie Kabat, 2023-08-23 In the summer of 1964 the FBI found the smoldering remains of the station wagon that James Chaney Michael Schwerner and Andrew Goodman had been driving before their disappearance Shortly after this awful discovery Julie Kabat's beloved brother Luke arrived as a volunteer for the Mississippi Summer Project Teaching biology to Freedom School students in Meridian Luke became one of more than seven hundred student volunteers who joined experienced Black civil rights workers and clergy to challenge white supremacy in the nation's most segregated state During his time in Mississippi Luke helped plan the community memorial service for Chaney attended the Democratic National Convention in support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party and even spent time in jail for contributing to the delinquency of minors This arrest followed his decision to take students out for ice cream Through his activism Luke grappled with many issues that continue to haunt and divide us today racialized oppression threats of violence and segregation whether explicit in law or implicit through custom Sadly Luke died just two years after Freedom Summer leaving behind copious letters diaries and essays as well as a lasting impact on his younger sister nicknamed Pig Drawing on a wealth of primary resources especially her brother's letters and diaries Kabat delves deep into her family history to understand Luke's motivations for joining the movement and documents his experiences as an activist In addition to Luke's personal narrative Kabat includes conversations with surviving Freedom School volunteers and students who declare the life-long legacy of Freedom Summer A sister's tribute to her brother Love Letter from Pig My Brother's Story of Freedom Summer addresses ongoing issues of civil rights and racial inequality facing the nation today

The Fifteenth Letter Karen Wiesner, Chris Spindler, 2012-11-25 For the past fifteen years on the anniversary of his arrest for armed robbery Zeke Carfi has received a threatening letter signed by the wife of his deceased partner in crime Zeke's daughter Amber Falcon's Bend Police Department's newest patrol officer has spent fifteen years holding onto a secret that could further condemn the father she'd worshiped as a child When Zeke is released on parole Amber finds herself questioning everything she's ever believed Is Zeke the good man she once knew How could the father who'd made her the center of his world for the first seven years of her life be a criminal Is it possible to turn from a life a crime or is it true that once a criminal always a criminal Their reconciliation is cut short when Amber discovers the fifteenth letter and the key to a fifteen year mystery that could lead to murder

Zarit,Leonard I. Pearlin,K. Warner Schaie,2019-02-21 Caregiving has emerged as a critical issue in the second half of the life cycle With the growth of the older population there have been dramatic increases in the number of people needing care and assistance The responsibility for care typically falls on families at a time when they have limited resources to meet these needs At a societal level the need for care for growing numbers of disabled elders poses a major challenge for how to organize supportive services in an efficient and responsive system Bringing together multiple perspectives on caregiving the authors explore informal and formal family caregiving and the pivotal issue of how these systems interface and interact An overview of this variation is provided by examining family caregiving from three perspectives the effects of culture on helping patterns and family responsibility how different disabilities affect patterns of family care and longitudinal perspectives on the impact that caregiving has on family members

REINCARNATE! - A Love Letter From THE PHOENIX Shreshtha Jha,2025-08-18 The book has been written to uplift the depressed energy that gets burnt and gradually evaporates combating the conservative mentalities surrounding the purehearted individuals Being pure in heart is a blessing but if it is not accompanied by a sharp head and strong will to claim your spotlight your birth and worth both will get wasted This is a fourbook series that has been written with every honest effort to highlight the still existing hypocrisy in society with the selfproclaimed lawmakers of society who breathe authority even when just sought a perspective irrespective of the fact whether they possess any knowledge about the topic being discussed or whether ever lived a different life with the new generation of this new era And due to these shallow creatures lives of the people who are born with the most amazing combination of zeal and zest to pursue and accomplish stunning peaks in personal and professional spheres get tossed upside down making their lives a living hell To those who are suffering it is time put on the armour and slay down the evil in your life Change in head should precede change in heart if a worthy life
