Corporations, Accounting, Securities Laws, and the Extinction of Capitalism Wm. Dennis Huber, 2022-07-18 Ever since Marx the future of capitalism has been fiercely debated Marx and his followers predicted capitalism will end by violent overthrow while others prophesied its demise will be the result of collapsing under its own weight Still others argue that capitalism will not only continue to exist but continue to expand globally This book takes a distinctively different approach by presenting solid evidence that capitalism has already ended The author argues that corporate statutory law securities laws and generally accepted accounting principles have combined to cause the extinction of capitalists Without capitalists as owners of capital there can be no capitalism The book examines the factors that converged to contribute to and hasten the extinction of capitalists and thus of capitalism as an economic system in an ironic case of the law of unintended consequences The very things that were intended to promote protect and sustain capitalism are the things that caused its death It exposes the fallacy that capitalism as an economic system not only continues to exist but is expanding globally Capitalism is extinct and the social system constructed on capitalism as an economic system cannot be sustained This book will appeal to economists accountants historians political scientists lawyers and sociologists as well as students of those disciplines

Accounting and Corporate Reporting Soner Gokten, 2017-09-20 We have spent a great deal of time on the continued development of accounting and auditing standards which are used as a primary component of corporate reporting to reach today's financial reporting framework However is it possible to say that currently financial statements provide full and prompt disclosure Or will they still be useful as a primary element with their current structures in corporate reporting Undoubtedly we are deeply concerned about these issues in recent times This volume contains chapters to discuss the today's and tomorrow's accounting and corporate reporting phenomena in a comprehensive and multidimensional way Therefore this book is organized into six sections Achieving Sustainability through Corporate Reporting International Standardization Financial Reporting Quality Accounting Profession and Behavioral Aspects Public Sector Accounting and Reporting and Managerial Accounting Perspectives, Trends, and Applications in Corporate Finance and Accounting Zopounidis, Constantin, Christopoulos, Apostolos G., Kalantonis, Petros, 2018-06-29 Financial analyses investments and accounting practices are continually developing and improving areas that have seen significant advancements in the past century However the recent bankruptcies by major banks the debt crisis in the European Union and the economic turmoil in several countries have caused severe downfalls in financial markets and financial systems worldwide As the world works to recover it is important to learn from these financial crises to ensure a more secure and sustainable outlook for organizations and the global future Perspectives Trends and Applications in Corporate Finance and Accounting is a crucial resource providing coverage on the stock market public deficits investment firms performances banking systems and global economic trends This publication highlights areas including but not limited to the relationship between the stock market and macroeconomics with apparent economic circumstances are overwhelming. However, while it may be acceptable to find a meantime solution, a long term sustainable solution is better, which is to focus on breeding efficient, effective and productive accountants who can sustain the objectives and goals of the going concern. Tertiary institutions must not underestimate the need to concentrate energy on creating awareness, arming graduates with necessary knowledge and skills on elements of accounting profession, which is a better way out to solve the problem rather than the fire brigade approach to salvage the situation. As the industry looks up to institutions to step up the game, we must wow them by producing graduate accountants who will not only be able to practice but also can in their circumference engage with policy issues and research in the work place environment for increased and sustainable productivity.
