Bloom of Love: A BBW Interracial Western Romance Erin Wright, 2021-04-01 Enjoy this steamy cowboy series by USA Today Bestselling small town romance author Erin Wright Maybe it's not too late for her happily ever after Carla's always been a romantic. As the owner of the only flower shop in town, she believes in true love and can of course quote every line in The Princess Bride. Which wouldn't be quite so pathetic if she wasn't thirty-seven and still single. So single in fact she's forgotten what it's like to have a man give her a single carnation, let alone a dozen roses. Then Christian walks into Happy Petals and she knows the fragrance of flowers has to have gone straight to her head. It's inconceivable that the cute Spanish guy she remembers from high school would be interested in her. She's the girl of his dreams and way out of his league. Family is important to Christian. Why else would he be living in a company trailer? It's a sacrifice he has to make so he can afford to send his sister to college. But nearing forty, his own chances of starting a family aren't looking too hot, especially considering he hasn't been out on a date in years. So it makes no sense at all he can't get Carla out of his head. Not only is she gorgeous, she's college-educated and way too good for a barely educated guy like him. Only she does seem interested. Maybe if he hides the truth about just how out of her league he is, he might have a chance. Bloom of Love is the tenth novel in the Cowboys of Long Valley Romance series, although all books in the Long Valley world can be read as standalones. For fans of Sharleen Scott, Deborah Garland, or Laylah Roberts, this is a HOT romantic story with a guaranteed happily ever after. It does have some strong language and oh my sexy times. Enjoy.

Interracial Intimacy Rachel F. Moran, 2001. Crossing disciplinary lines, Moran looks in depth at interracial intimacy in America from colonial times to the present. She traces the evolution of bans on intermarriage and explains why blacks and Asians faced harsh penalties while Native Americans and Latinos did not. She provides fresh insight into how these laws served complex purposes, why they remained on the books for so long, and what led to their eventual demise. As Moran demonstrates, the United States Supreme Court could not declare statutes barring intermarriage unconstitutional until the civil rights movement coupled with the sexual revolution had transformed prevailing views about race, sex, and marriage.

Planning His Wedding: Interracial Romance Tressie Lockwood, Author's Note. This interracial romance is steamy but clean. Shona Wells and Micah Reed have been friends since college. Everyone knows Shona loves Micah, but what does Micah feel for her? When Micah announces to Shona that he's getting married, she's shocked and hurt. She never thought he would step up to the plate with anyone, least of all the skank he's been dating. Things get worse when his fiancée asks Shona to help her plan the wedding. Shona wants to say no, but how can she explain to her best friend that she can't support him during one of the most important times of his life? They've cried through the loss of a parent and laughed together through silly movies. Why can't Micah see her as more than a friend? What Shona doesn't know is Micah has a secret, a big one he's kept from her for more than a decade. He can't marry her. The only option is to choose someone else. He knows he shouldn't ask her to help plan his wedding to another woman. Everyone knows Shona loves him, and he's seen it for years. They can't be together because of his secret. Although his heart is breaking, he'll do what he has to do.

Masculinity in the Interracial Buddy Film Melvin Donalson, 2005-12-20. Feature films function as a keeper of America's collective conscience, a repository of fears, guilt, and hopes. Buddy films about men of different races depict a world where a peaceful balance is possible and conflicts can be resolved Since the 1930s these films have presented various forms of masculinity reflecting dominant mainstream social traditions images of men and manhood within the culture Interracial buddy films include such examples as the Silver Streak 48 Hrs Beverly Hills Cop Lethal Weapon and The Shawshank Redemption Many of these films have been made into franchises furthering their cultural importance as filmic versions of interracial equality This critical study analyzes the idealized interracial relationships the heterosexual masculine roles within the films and the appearances of this kind of film in various genres The book is arranged in six major chapters each focusing upon a particular era in the development of the interracial buddy film The book also examines the film sequel as a validation of the enduring significance of interracial interaction The scope of the work is not limited to Caucasian African American pairings Films with a myriad of racial and ethnic combinations are also analyzed such as Tin Cup Rush Hour Shanghai Noon and Ocean's Eleven

The A to Z of African-American Television Kathleen Fearn-Banks, 2009-08-04 From Amos n Andy to The Jeffersons to Family Matters to Chappelle's Show this volume covers it all with entries on all different genres animation documentaries sitcoms sports talk shows and variety shows and performers such as Muhammad Ali Louis Armstrong Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey Additionally information can be found on general issues ranging from African American audiences and stereotypes through the related networks and organizations This book has hundreds of cross referenced entries from A to Z in the dictionary and a list of acronyms with their corresponding definitions The extensive chronology shows who did what and when and the introduction traces the often difficult circumstances African American performers faced compared to the more satisfactory present situation Finally the bibliography is useful to those readers who want to know more about specific topics or persons

Boundaries of Love Chinyere K. Osuji, 2019-05-21 How interracial couples in Brazil and the US navigate racial boundaries How do people understand and navigate being married to a person of a different race Based on individual interviews with forty seven black white couples in two large multicultural cities Los Angeles and Rio de Janeiro Boundaries of Love explores how partners in these relationships ultimately reproduce negotiate and challenge the us versus them mentality of ethno racial boundaries By centering marriage Chinyere Osuji reveals the family as a primary site for understanding the social construction of race She challenges the naive but widespread belief that interracial couples and their children provide an antidote to racism in the twenty first century instead highlighting the complexities and contradictions of these relationships Featuring black husbands with white wives as well as black wives with white husbands Boundaries of Love sheds light on the role of gender in navigating life married to a person of a different color Osuji compares black white couples in Brazil and the United States the two most populous post slavery societies in the Western hemisphere These settings she argues reveal the impact of contemporary race mixture on racial hierarchies and racial ideologies both old and new Love Unexpected Series Box Set (Books 1-3) Delaney Diamond, 2020-02-03 The Love Unexpected series is an interracial romance series with sexy heroes and lovable heroines Books one two and three are available in a box set for a limited time THE BLIND DATE One night changes everything again Years ago when Ryan Stewart saw Shawna Ferguson it was love at first sight Unfortunately he wasn't a free man and his deception caused him to lose her after a weekend that changed his life When Shawna's sister and brother in law set her up on a blind date she has no idea it's with Ryan with whom she'd spent a weekend she wishes she could forget She reluctantly agrees to finish the date with him but doing so leaves her vulnerable to his charms and the heat he ignited in her that very first night THE WRONG MAN They have nothing in common So why can't they stay away from each other Construction foreman Tomas Molina has no desire to settle down He enjoys the single life too much with all the choices of women available to him But when ad executive Talia Jackson becomes single again they start an affair that has him questioning his beliefs about relationships And the next thing he knows he's the one demanding exclusivity Talia Jackson has always done what's right Gone to the right schools worn the right clothes and married the right man Seeking a boost when her marriage ends in divorce she finds comfort in the arms of Tomas Molina a man who makes her feel alive in a way she never has before Then an unexpected result of their affair forces her to make a tough decision stay in the world she's known all her life or make a future with the man she's grown to love AN UNEXPECTED ATTRACTION They didn't mean to fall in love Brenda Morrison has known Jay Santorini for years but he's off limits He's her friend's ex husband and except for one slip up they've always had a platonic relationship But now that she's back in Atlanta the smoldering attraction between them is much harder to resist Jay has always kept a hands off approach to Brenda and the time they spend together starts out innocently enough or so he pretends Because the truth is Jay has feelings for her and those feelings are anything but innocent

Asylum Edefe Okporo, 2022-06-07 A moving dramatic David Ebershoff New York Times bestselling author of The Danish Girl and urgent call to action for immigration justice by a Nigerian asylee and global gay rights and immigration activist Edefe Okporo On the eve of Edefe Okporo's twenty sixth birthday he was awoken by a violent mob outside his window in Abuja Nigeria The mob threatened his life after discovering the secret Edefe had been hiding for years that he is a gay man Left with no other choice he purchased a one way plane ticket to New York City and fled for his life Though America had always been painted to him as a land of freedom and opportunity it was anything but when he arrived just days before the tumultuous 2016 Presidential Election Edefe would go on to spend the next six months at an immigration detention center in Elizabeth New Jersey After navigating the confusing often draconian US immigration and legal system he was finally granted asylum But he would soon realize that America is exceptionally good at keeping people locked up but is seriously lacking in integrating freed refugees into society Asylum is Edefe's powerful eye opening Dr Eric Cervini New York Times bestselling author of The Deviant's War memoir and manifesto which documents his experiences growing up gay in Nigeria fleeing to America navigating the immigration system and making a life for himself as a Black gay immigrant Alongside his personal story is a blaring call to action not only for immigration reform but for a just immigration system for refugees everywhere This book imagines a future where immigrants and asylees are treated with fairness transparency and compassion It aims to help us understand that home is not just where you feel safe and welcome but also how you can make it feel safe and welcome for others      Obsessed With...Hollywood Andrew J. Rausch, Andy Rausch, 2007-10-04 Includes multiple choice questions about the world of film Embedded in the book is a special computerized quiz module that lets you compete against yourself or a friend      Love and Loss After Wounded Knee Julie Dobrow, 2025-11-04 A dual biography of two activists whose marriage challenged the gender and racial norms of their time Like any set of star crossed lovers Elaine and Charles came from different worlds Elaine an acclaimed childhood poet from a remote corner of the Massachusetts Berkshires traveled to the Dakota Territories to teach Native American students undaunted by society's admonitions Charles a Dakota Sioux from Minnesota educated at Dartmouth and Boston University Medical School was considered by his Euro American mentors the epitome of an assimilated Indian But when they met just ahead of the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890 the magnetic pull of love brought them together despite the tremendous odds stacked against them Love and Loss After Wounded Knee offers a dual biography of Elaine Goodale and Oh ye Sa Dr Charles Alexander Eastman exploring their individual lives as well as their highly publicized interracial marriage Both well known in their own time Elaine as a poet journalist and advocate for Indian education and Charles as writer public speaker and ardent activist for Indian rights their marriage started with a shared vision to work on behalf of Indians In the face of extreme prejudice financial burden and personal tragedy however the marriage began to unravel Dobrow paints an intimate emotional portrait of the Eastmans lives drawn from Elaine and Charles's letters papers and hundreds of accounts of the Eastmans lives from newspapers Along the way she skillfully illuminates the shifting late 19th and early 20th century definitions of Indigenous identity and reveals how the Eastmans legacies reflect changing American attitudes toward gender interracial relationships and biracial children The result is a compelling new history that weds the private and the political and Native America and the United States of America entwined yet separated inextricable yet never fully joined just like Elaine and Charles themselves
