...to be able to do this, it is necessary to identify what influence the company has on the customer groups. For the safety manager, this is determining the content of the documents. For the person responsible for safety, it is not how convincing it was a fact. For the safety manager, the fact that the company has a safety policy and that it is implemented is not enough. It is also necessary to know what the company has done to improve its safety and what it has achieved in this regard.
