First Forty-one Years of the Life of Sylvanus Cobb, D.D. Sylvanus Cobb,1867 Autobiography of the First Forty-One Years of the Life of Sylvanus Cobb, D.D. Sylvanus Cobb,2022-02-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1867 Telling the Stories of Life Through Guided Autobiography Groups James E. Birren,Kathryn N. Cochran,2001-07-05

Birren has conducted more than twenty five years of autobiography groups where participants recall write and share their life stories He offers how to tips for organizing complementing and understanding oral history works He finds that the exercise is rewarding for adults entering periods of transitions such as the elderly population and encourages the sharing of experiences with others on the same journey Basements and Attics, Closets and Cyberspace Linda M Morra,Jessica Schagerl,2013-01-24 Women s letters and memoirs were until recently considered to have little historical significance Many of these materials have disappeared or remain unarchived often dismissed as ephemera and relegated to basements attics closets and increasingly cyberspace rather than public institutions This collection showcases the range of critical debates that animate thinking about women s archives in Canada The essays in Basements and Attics Closets and Cyberspace consider a series of central questions What are the challenges that affect archival work about women in Canada today What are some of the ethical dilemmas that arise over the course of archival research How do researchers read and make sense of the materials available to them How does one approach the shifting unstable forms of new technologies What principles inform the decisions not only to research the lives of women but to create archival deposits The contributors focus on how a supple research process might allow for greater engagement with unique archival forms and critical absences in narratives of past and present From questions of acquisition deposition and preservation to challenges related to the interpretation of material the contributors track at various stages how fonds are created or sidestepped in response to national and other imperatives and to feminist commitments how archival material is organized restricted accessed and interpreted how alternative and immediate archives might be conceived and approached and how exchanges might be read when there are peculiar lacunae missing or fragmented documents or gaps in communication that then require imaginative leaps on the part of the researcher

Why Life Speeds Up As You Get Older Douwe Draaisma, 2004-11-04 Is it true as the novelist Cees Nooteboom once wrote that Memory is like a dog that lies down where it pleases Where do the long lazy summers of our childhood go Why is it that as we grow older time seems to condense speed up elude us while in old age significant events from our distant past can seem as vivid and real as what happened yesterday In this enchanting and thoughtful book Douwe Draaisma author of the internationally acclaimed Metaphors of Memory explores the nature of autobiographical memory Applying a unique blend of scholarship poetic sensibility and keen observation he tackles such extraordinary phenomena as d j vu near death experiences the memory feats of idiot savants and the effects of extreme trauma on memory recall Raising almost as many questions as it answers this fascinating book will not fail to touch you at the same time as it educates and entertains

Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one's humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re-examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self-examination of one's most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one's sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes
