Primer on Large-Scale Assessments of Educational Achievement Marguerite Clarke, Diego Luna-Bazaldua, 2021-06-09 To improve their education systems countries around the world have increasingly initiated national largescale assessment programs or participated in international or regional large scale assessment studies for the first time Well constructed large scale assessments can provide credible information on student achievement levels which in turn can promote better resource allocation to schools stronger education service delivery and improved learning outcomes The World Bank developed this Primer on Large Scale Assessments of Educational Achievement as a firststop resource for those wanting to understand how to design administer analyze and use the results from these assessments of student achievement The book addresses frequently asked questions from people working on large scale assessment projects and those interested in making informed decisions about them Each chapter introduces a stage in the assessment process and offers advice guidelines and country examples This book also reports on emerging trends in large scale assessment and provides updated information on regional and international large scale assessment programs DIRK HASTEDT Executive Director of the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement IEA A special feature of the publication is that it not only gives an overview of technical specifications but also includes examples from around the world on how countries are conducting large scale assessments what they found and how the results were used With this perspective the Primer on Large Scale Assessments of Educational Achievement is an excellent and easy to read publication to get a comprehensive overview of large scale assessments and how and why they are conducted SILVIA MONTROYA Director of UNESCO Institute for Statistics UNESCO UIS If you are responsible for learning assessment in a country and are searching for a comprehensive yet readable guide on large scale assessment this is your book Extremely well structured and written this primer is easy to follow and makes points clearly and concisely It is an excellent resource that explores the steps for a good large scale assessment with examples from all international large scale assessment programs ANDREAS SCHLEICHER Director for the Directorate of Education and Skills and Special Advisor on Education Policy to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development s OECD Secretary General Many countries have joined international educational assessments to benchmark quality equity and efficiency in their education systems But what does it take to design and implement those efforts well and to draw value from this to help students learn better teachers teach better and schools to work more effectively This Primer on Large Scale Assessments of Educational Achievement helps policy makers and their technical teams to find answers to these questions

ANDREI VOLKOV Director of the Institute for Public Strategy Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO In 2008 when the Russia Education Aid for Development READ Program was launched we determined its main goal as the improvement of the quality of basic education Today the READ Program keeps setting trends as the largest Russian initiative promoting educational assessment Approaches developed within the READ Program from building institutional and expert capacity to influencing educational reforms have proven their efficacy in many countries The Primer on Large Scale Assessments of Educational Achievement brings together in a practical format the best experience and case studies in conducting assessments under the READ Program An especially important feature of the book is an integrated capacity building component which makes it a practical tutorial ready for use in different cultural contexts Through this book we hope that our collective experience gathered during READ will be widely shared bringing us closer to ach Daily Graphic Elvis D. Aryeh,2002-07-15 Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2010-04-07 Modern Mathematics Dirk De Bock,2023-03-08 The international New Math developments between about 1950 through 1980 are regarded by many mathematics educators and education historians as the most historically important development in curricula of the twentieth century It attracted the attention of local and international politicians of teachers and of parents and influenced the teaching and learning of mathematics at all levels kindergarten to college graduate in many nations After garnering much initial support it began to attract criticism But as Bill Jacob and the late Jerry Becker show in Chapter 17 some of the effects became entrenched This volume edited by Professor Dirk De Bock of Belgium provides an outstanding overview of the New Math modern mathematics movement Chapter authors provide exceptionally high quality analyses of the rise of the movement and of subsequent developments within a range of nations The first few chapters show how the initial leadership came from mathematicians in European nations and in the United States of America The background leaders in Europe were Caleb Gattegno and members of a mysterious group of mainly French pure mathematicians who since the 1930s had published under the name of a fictitious Nicolas Bourbaki In the United States there emerged during the 1950s various attempts to improve U S mathematics curricula and teaching especially in secondary schools and colleges This side of the story climaxed in 1957 when the Soviet Union succeeded in launching Sputnik the first satellite Undoubtedly this is a landmark publication in education The foreword was written by Professor Bob Moon one of a few other scholars to have written on the New Math from an international perspective The final epilogue chapter by Professor Geert Vanpaemel a historian draws together the overall thrust of the volume and makes links with the general history of curriculum development especially in science education including recent globalization trends Daily Graphic Sam Clegg,1988-11-08 The Muslim Resurgence in Ghana Since 1950 Nathan Samwini,2006 This volume examines the place of Islam in Ghanaian society with particular attention to the role of the dominant orthodox Tijjnyiya tradition and its relation to newer groups which have become increasingly prominent since 1950 These are characterized as part of a Muslim resurgence The two groups given particular attention are the Ahmadiyya Muslim Mission Amm and the Ahlus Sunna wal Jama a Nathan Samwini holds a doctoral degree in philosophy from the University of Birmingham UK and is ordained minister of the Methodist Church in Ghana

Community Participation in School Management Kazuro Shibuya,2022-09-12 Nobody denies that trust in schools is key to success in generating any educational outcomes However trust is often eroded resulting in conflicts alienation and differentiation among school level stakeholders This book analyses school based management SBM of education through the lens of relational trust in the context of Ghana revealing how community participation in school management leads to educational outcomes Conducting quantitative analysis of headteacher questionnaires from public basic schools and qualitative analysis of case study schools in the Akatsi South District of Ghana Shibuya offers critical insights into building sustainable relationships between individual households and geographical school communities He argues it is critical to highlight relational trust as an analytical tool to examine relationships between actors and factors in school management The research finds that trust in schools is a two way mechanism and the mutuality of expectations and obligations among stakeholders is essential if children s learning outcomes are to improve With its mixed methods approach this book will be a valuable resource for scholars in comparative education those in educational development and those interested in African contexts

Ife Psychologia, 2003 School Level Leadership in Post-conflict Societies Simon R. P. Clarke, Thomas A. O'Donoghue, 2013-07-18 How do different contexts influence the nature and character of school leadership? This book is predicated on the simple yet profound observation that school leadership can only be understood within the context in which it is exercised. The observation is particularly valid in relation to post-conflict societies, especially when they have eventuated from new wars. Schools in these contexts face highly complex circumstances and a level of environmental turbulence requiring different kinds of leadership from those operating in less complicated and relatively stable situations. By assembling an impressive array of international experts, this book investigates a much neglected area of research. Each chapter highlights the importance of context for understanding the realities of school leadership and reveals the challenges and influences that school leaders face, as well as the strategies they adopt to deal with the complexities of their work. In particular, valuable insights are provided into how intractable problems faced by schools can affect student professional and organizational learning agendas. There are also important glimpses of the progression that can be made in schools by enhancing the curriculum, energizing teaching capacity, and optimising leadership capacity. Depictions of post-new war environments include Angola, Ghana, Sri Lanka, Rwanda, Kenya, Solomon Islands, Lebanon, Kosovo, Timor-Leste, and Northern Ireland. The book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying educational leadership, comparative education, and education policy. Comparative Analysis on Universal Primary Education Policy and Practice in Sub-Saharan Africa, 2015-01-01 Achieving Universal Primary Education (UPE) has received considerable attention since the early 1950s. The concept of universal education is, however, not well defined and is used to mean many different things to different people. This book contains a five-year research work conducted by a group of African and Japanese researchers who have developed an equal partnership and network to review the expansion of primary education, some policies prompting the free primary education intervention, and the challenges of implementation based on the case study of two districts in four countries, namely Ghana, Kenya, Malawi, and Uganda. The first part discusses issues related to administrative, financial, and perceptual issues related to UPE policies in each country, case followed by the second part that focuses on quality of education and UPE policies. The book contains various lessons learnt and implications for future education policies in developing countries. Reaching Middle-Income Status In Ghana By 2015: Public Expenditures and Agricultural Growth Samuel Benin, Tewodaj Mogues, Godsway Cudjoe, and Josee Randriamamonjy,
