Business Organizations

Lesson 3: Nonprofit Organizations

Review Questions

Directions: Read each main idea and complete the statements below. Refer to your textbook as you write the answers.

A. Community Organizations and Cooperatives

Main Idea: Nonprofit organizations are organized like businesses. However, they usually operate to help the community or a particular group of people, not for financial gain. Labor unions, churches, school groups, and adoption agencies are just a few of the many types of nonprofits that operate in communities around the nation.

1. The results of the actions of nonprofits are difficult to _____, but they are important contributors to our _____ system.
2. A cooperative is a _____ association that benefits its _____.
3. A _____ cooperative buys food or other goods in bulk so that members pay _____ prices for the products.
4. A _____ union is a type of service _____ that provides financial services to its members.
5. Most producer co-op members are _____ who provide their products directly to _____.

B. Labor, Professional, and Business Organizations

Main Idea: Labor unions and business or professional organizations promote the interests of their membership.

1. Some workers belong to _____ unions that engage in _____ bargaining with management for better pay and working conditions for their members.
2. Doctors, nurses, and other professionals may belong to professional _____ that work to _____ policies that benefit their professional memberships.
