The effect that the Civil War had on the United States (1861-1865)

The mid-19th century in the United States was dominated by the burning question of the Civil War, a conflict that would determine the future of the nation. The war from 1861 to 1865, addressed the country's divided regional loyalties, a period of struggle and reconstruction.

The admission of the Missouri Compromise line of 1820, which divided the country into free and slave territories, was a key event in the history of the nation.

The Supreme Court, which was established in 1789, was the highest court in the land. It was responsible for interpreting the Constitution and settling disputes between the states.
The Court's decision in 1857 in the Dred Scott case was a major event in the history of the nation, as it ruled that African Americans were not citizens and therefore could not sue in federal court.
