The Holocaust, which took place during World War II, stands as one of the darkest chapters in human history. This essay explores the period from the start of persecution in 1933 to the final solution in 1945, tracing the rise of Nazi Germany and the systematic annihilation of innocent people, primarily Jews, but also others.

The persecution of targeted groups began in earnest in 1933, when Adolf Hitler and the Nazis came to power in Germany. They used a combination of laws, violence, and propaganda to strip Jews and other minorities of their rights and isolate them.

The "Final Solution" was the Nazis' plan to exterminate the Jewish population of Europe. It involved the use of concentration camps, where victims were subjected to forced labor, starvation, and brutal conditions. The "Final Solution" was implemented in 1941, aimed at the total annihilation of Jews across Europe, Asia, and North America.

Why were the strategies used by the Nazis to persecute the Jews?

In your own words, describe what the "Final Solution" meant.
