American Propaganda from the Spanish-American War to Iraq Steven R. Brydon, 2021-11-01 In this book Steven R. Brydon analyzes American war propaganda spanning from the Spanish American War through the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Brydon argues that many of these wars were fought based on false or misleading narratives beginning with blaming Spain for the sinking of the Maine and continuing most recently with charges that Saddam Hussein had weapons of mass destruction and was involved in the terrorist attacks of September 11 Research has shown that well told stories can affect the public's beliefs attitudes and actions and Brydon has identified some of these recurring stories that have been told to support and sustain each war during this time period Using Fisher's narrative paradigm Brydon critically evaluates these war stories to determine if they possessed narrative coherence and fidelity that provided good reasons to go to war rather than simply the appearance of these qualities The responsibility Brydon stresses is on the media and on academics to view future

Hartlep, Daniel P. Scott, 2016-08-18 In this important book Nicholas Hartlep and Daniel Scott's detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of Asian Americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about Asian Americans As Hartlep and Scott write Asian Americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the Blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality Over and over again the media has been telling a single story about Asian Americans to the public for the past fifty years The consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others even Asian Americans themselves from believing in the validity of their struggles Linshi 2014 p 1 The American Journey of Eric Sevareid Raymond A.
