in his bed into a monstrous insect So begins Franz Kafka's most famous story Metamorphosis Franz Kafka 1883-1924 is among the most intriguing and influential writers of the twentieth century During his lifetime he worked as a civil servant and published only a handful of short stories the best known being The Transformation All three of his novels The Trial The Castle and The Man Who Disappeared were published after his death and helped to found Kafka's reputation as a uniquely perceptive interpreter of the twentieth century Kafka's fiction vividly evokes bizarre situations a commercial traveller is turned into an insect a banker is arrested by a mysterious court a fasting artist starves to death in the name of art a singing mouse becomes the heroine of her nation Attending both to Kafka's crisis-ridden life and to the subtleties of his art Ritchie Robertson shows how his work explores such characteristically modern themes as the place of the body in culture the power of institutions over people and the possibility of religion after Nietzsche had proclaimed the death of God The result is an up-to-date and accessible portrait of a fascinating author which shows us ways to read and make sense of his perplexing and absorbing work

Metamorphosis Kafka's Travel Journals Franz Kafka, The travel diaries Franz Kafka produced between 1911 and 1912 offer an invaluable window into both his artistic development and the cultural landscape of pre war Europe Spanning three distinct journeys to Friedland and Reichenberg to Lugano and Paris and finally to Weimar and Jungborn these intimate documents reveal the emergence of themes and techniques that would later define his major literary works while simultaneously providing rich documentation of European society on the brink of transformation This new modern translation from the original German is a fresh accessible and beautifully rendered text that brings to life Kafka s great literary work This edition contains extra amplifying material including an illuminating afterword a timeline of Kafka s life and works alongside of the historical events which shaped his art and a short biography to place this work in its socio historical context The Friedland and Reichenberg entries showcase Kafka s remarkable attention to architectural detail and human behavior He constructs elaborate descriptions of buildings and spaces particularly notable in his account of the Friedland castle where he meticulously captures the interplay of dark ivy gray black walls and white snow His observations demonstrate a sophisticated understanding of spatial relationships and their psychological implications presenting these elements through carefully structured syntactic patterns that mirror the complexity of his perceptions The Lugano Paris Erlenbach journey entries reveal a more socially engaged Kafka though still maintaining his characteristic distance from the subjects he describes His documentation of the Parisian urban landscape is particularly noteworthy presenting the city through a series of carefully constructed observations that emphasize both the physical and psychological dimensions of urban space The narrative demonstrates remarkable lexical diversity smoothly transitioning between formal architectural descriptions and more colloquial observations of street life The Weimar and Jungborn sections present perhaps the most personally revealing portions of the journals documenting Kafka s interactions with various individuals including his complex relationship with a young woman named Grete These entries showcase his ability to move between objective observation and subjective experience employing varied syntactic structures that reflect his emotional state while maintaining precise descriptive control Kafka and the Contemporary Critical Performance Alan Udoff,1987 Kafka Régine
