Improving Learning in South African Schools Cas H. Prinsloo, 2005 The QLP has been a multi level multi site educational intervention that aimed to improve learner performance in 524 South African high schools The QLP has been underpinned by the principle that mathematics and language are the foundations for all further learning Therefore educators at all grades in all learning areas also have to foster the development of better reading and writing skills This is why at educator and classroom level improvement of mathematics and reading and writing abilities have been the main foci of the QLP In order to ensure that schools get effective support and monitoring from districts and that the good practices gained from the project are institutionalised and therefore sustained the programme has also focused on the development of district systems and officials

Struggling to Make the Grade: A Review of the Causes and Consequences of the Weak Outcomes of South Africa's Education System Mr. Montfort Mlachila, Thalefang Moeletsi, 2019-03-01 While South Africa has made significant improvements in basic and tertiary education enrollment the country still suffers from significant challenges in the quality of educational achievement by almost any international metric The paper finds that money is clearly not the main issue since the South Africa's education budget is comparable to OECD countries as a percent of GDP and exceeds that of most peer sub Saharan African countries in per capita terms The main explanatory factors are complex and multifaceted and are associated with insufficient subject knowledge of some teachers history race language geographic location and socio economic status Low educational achievement contributes to low productivity growth and high levels of poverty unemployment and inequality Drawing on the literature the paper sketches some policy considerations to guide the debate on what works and what does not

Green Schools Globally Annette Gough, John Chi-Kin Lee, Eric Po Keung Tsang, 2020-08-31 This book brings together stories of the green schools movement Eco Schools Enviroschools Green Schools Sustainable Schools ResourceSmart Schools etc in several countries around the world with a focus on the impact of the movement on the development and implementation of education for sustainable development in each of the countries In particular each story will explain the history of the movement per country its current status achievements obstacles and broader impact There have been a number of evaluations of these school movements at a national or more local level and numerous articles and chapters have been published on aspects of these schools activities but to date these have not been brought together in a single volume that focuses attention on the impact of the movement on education for sustainable development in each country This is the purpose of this volume The green schools movement focuses on a whole school approach which aims to include everyone students teachers and the local community to improve school environments including resource usage and the environmental footprint of the school to motivate students to take on environmental problems and seek resolutions particularly at a local level but also thinking globally and to improve students attitudes and behaviours as part of developing a sustainable mind set

Systematic Reviews of Research in Basic Education in South Africa Felix Maringe, 2021-04-09 Maringe ought to be commended for putting together an invaluable contribution to our understanding of research into a complex education system in South Africa This volume provides a useful foundation to the current state of education quality in South Africa including the impact of interventions It also brings to the fore challenges still facing education transformation The evidence presented which taken together lays out a coherent view of how improvements could be made Albert Chanee Head of Planning Gauteng Department of Education For too long the weight of educational scholarship produced in South Africa has been limited to that simple and standard form called the literature review Now for the first time education researchers are provided with an African based text on the concepts and methods of conducting systematic reviews In this exceptional work of editorship Felix Maringe brings together some of the leading researchers on South African education to model and demonstrate how to review a significant body of research on a chosen topic which is adjudicated strictly on the basis of the quality and efficacy of the evidence in hand I have no doubt that this remarkable book will become a standard reference for educational researchers in and beyond the African continent It will also lift the quality of educational inquiry by equipping a new generation of scholars with the capacity for doing evidence based research that compels the attention of policymakers planners and practitioners alike Prof Jonathan Jansen Stellenbosch University
