

Answer all the questions.

Section A (37 marks)

1 (a) By considering $(r+1)^3 - r^3$, find $\sum_{r=1}^n (3r^2 + 3r + 1)$. [3]

(b) Use this result to find $\sum_{r=1}^n r(r+1)$, expressing your answer in fully factorised form. [4]

2 In this question you must show detailed reasoning.

Find the exact value of $\int_3^{\infty} \frac{1}{x^2 - 4x + 5} dx$. [5]

3 In this question you must show detailed reasoning.

Solve the equation $3 \cosh x = 2 \sinh^2 x$, giving your solutions in exact logarithmic form. [6]

4 (a) A transformation with associated matrix $\begin{pmatrix} m & 2 & 1 \\ 0 & 1 & -2 \\ 2 & 0 & 3 \end{pmatrix}$, where m is a constant, maps the vertices of a cube to points that all lie in a plane.

Find m . [3]

(b) The transformations S and T of the plane have associated matrices M and N respectively, where $M = \begin{pmatrix} k & 1 \\ -3 & 4 \end{pmatrix}$ and the determinant of N is $3k+1$. The transformation U is equivalent to the combined transformation consisting of S followed by T.

Given that U preserves orientation and has an area scale factor 2, find the possible values of k . [4]

5 (a) Sketch the polar curve $r = a(1 - \cos \theta)$, $0 \leq \theta < 2\pi$, where a is a positive constant. [2]

(b) Determine the exact area of the region enclosed by the curve. [5]

6 Prove by mathematical induction that $\begin{pmatrix} 2 & 0 \\ -1 & 1 \end{pmatrix}^n = \begin{pmatrix} 2^n & 0 \\ 1-2^n & 1 \end{pmatrix}$ for all positive integers n . [5]

The International Dimensions of Democratization in Egypt Gamal M. Selim, 2015-06-29 This book purports to examine the international dimensions of the democratization process in Egypt in the post Cold War era a theme which acquired significance at the academic and policy oriented levels in light of the growing internationalization of reform arrangements in the Arab world in post 9 11 and the greater involvement of external powers in Arab politics following the Arab Spring uprisings During the second half of the twentieth century the mainstream scholarship presented the democratization process as the outcome of domestic conditions not significantly influenced by actors outside the nation state With the end of the Cold War this perspective was challenged as a result of the third wave of democratization and the subsequent growth of the good governance discourse on the agenda of the international development establishment The new perspective attached a more significant role to external factors in the democratization process than was originally conceptualized

Inside the Arab State Mehran Kamrava, 2018-08-15 The 2011 Arab uprisings and their subsequent aftermath have thrown into question some of our long held assumptions about the foundational aspects of the Arab state While the regional and international consequences of the uprisings continue to unfold with great unpredictability their ramifications for the internal lives of the states in which they unfolded are just as dramatic and consequential States historically viewed as models of strength and stability have been shaken to their foundations Borders thought impenetrable have collapsed sovereignty and territoriality have been in flux This book examines some of the central questions facing observers and scholars of the Middle East concerning the nature of power and politics before and after 2011 in the Arab world The focus of the book revolves around the very nature of politics and the exercise of power in the Arab world conceptions of the state its functions and institutions its sources of legitimacy and basic notions underlying it such as sovereignty and nationalism Inside the Arab State adopts a multi disciplinary approach examining a broad range of political economic and social variables It begins with an examination of politics and more specifically political institutions in the Arab world from the 1950s on tracing the travail of states and the wounds they inflicted on society and on themselves along the way until the eruption of the 2011 uprisings The uprisings the states responses to them and efforts by political leaders to carve out for themselves means of legitimacy are also discussed as are the reasons for the emergence and rise of Daesh and the Islamic State Power I argue and increasingly narrow conceptions of it in terms of submission and conformity remains at the heart of Arab politics popular protests and yearnings for change notwithstanding Much has changed in the Arab world over the last several decades But even more has stayed the same MEI. capability since the Islamic Revolution in 1979 but its potency and significance have risen sharply in the past decade to the point where it has brought Iran more regional influence and status than either its nuclear or ballistic missile programmes. The IISS Strategic Dossier Iran's Networks of Influence provides an understanding of how Iran builds, operates and uses this capability. Based on original field research, open source information and interviews with a range of sources, the dossier conducts an audit of Iran's activities in the principal regional theatres of Iraq, Lebanon, Syria and Yemen and its reach into Bahrain, Saudi Arabia and Kuwait. It includes an examination of Tehran's nurturing of groups such as the Houthis in Yemen, the Badr Organisation in Iraq, Hezbollah in Lebanon and Shia militias in Syria, and details related to recruitment, weapons supply, logistics and command and control systems. Iran's Networks of Influence is intended through objective fact-based analysis to inform both policymakers and practitioners and to stimulate debate on the wider significance of Iran's use of third party partners and the strategic depth they afford Tehran. The dossier also examines the advantages that Iran possesses through its recent experience of conflict and its ability to mobilise and deploy sympathetic Shia communities across theatres. In a time of rising tension in the region, the dossier looks at how Iran might further develop the use of its partnership capability and the risks and constraints it might face.
